Frantic Efforts to Prove Liberalism.

Frantic efforts are being made by the supporters of Colonel Peck to prove that he is a Liberal and that although he voted with the Meighen Government right up to the last division in Parliament and is today looked on everywhere outside of this constituency as a Meighen supporter, yet he has experienced a change of heart. Like Saul of Tarsus he has seen a great light and is now safely on the path of independence, with Liberalism as his goal. All this in spite of the fact that the Conservatives of the district are behind him and they seem to see him just as do the people outside the constituency. It is only the Liberals who are expected to see his Liberalism. Apparently his Liberalism is very different from that of Fred Stork, else the Liberals of his home city would support him. This they are not doing in spite of allegations to the contrary. Even those who at first were led away with the glamor of a splendid military record have nearly all returned to the side which is going to benefit Northern British Columbia most.

Drop in and See the Type of Men.

Efforts are being made to convey the impression that Fred Stork is in the hands of a small coterie of politicians and that it is by them the campaign is being conducted. Anyone with such ideas should drop into the Stork committee rooms in the Pattullo Block, Second Avenue, any evening between 8 and 9 o'clock and see the type of men who are there. He will at once discover that the men who are behind Stork are the honest workers, who know that they have nothing to gain by voting the Meighen Government back into power. They know that Liberalism stands for democracy and that, while mistakes are made on both sides, the general principles underlying the Liberal cause are those of the welfare of the mass of the people. Meighenism means government by the few for the few. Liberalism means the government for the general welfare.

Patronage Has Gone Says the Independent Liberal.

Colonel Peck says he is an independent and a Liberal and that patronage has gone never to return, or words to that effect. Possibly, however, the Colonel has not thought of noting who have been appointed to official positions to conduct this election. The returning officer is the president of the Conservative Association and all appointees, and there are dozens of them, are faithful adherents to the Conservative cause. Some of them are openly campaigning for the Conservative candidate, for that is what they consider their candidate to be.

The Daily News is not taking any exception to the men who have been appointed to the positions. Most of them are good men and will do their duty fairly and well. What we do object to is to hear so much prating about patronage being abolished in face of the fact that in this election the plums were handed out to the faithful just as in the old days before the abolition of patronage was an accomplished fact. This abolition of patronage is similar to the candidate's independence. It exists in name, but whether the substance is there or not there will be no opportunity to prove, for judging from all reports that come in, there will be such a majority for Stork as will expel all doubt.

Taking Credit for Public Works.

We have to thank Frank Sleet for the reminder that the contract for the ocean dock was not let by the present Government but by the former management of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and that an effort was made by the present management to cancel the contract entered into with Grant, Smith & Magoffin. Everything possible has been done since the Meighen Government came into power to disable this section of the country. No railway management that was not crazy would have allowed the fish business to leave this port for months if not years before making an effort to hold it. So much has been said of the conduct of the railway in connection with that messy business that we hate to repeat it now. It is, however, necessary for the sake of the future to mention these things and to show that while Colonel Peck probably meant all right, he was mistaken in the confidence he reposed in the powers that are. If he should be again elected he is just as likely to throw in his lot with the wrong crowd again. The only way to make sure that we get what we want is for us to send a man to Ottawa who is pledged to a line of policy and whose political life is at stake should he swerve from that line.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HER LIFE

This Fruit Medicine Always Gives Relief

917 DUNDAS ST., MONTREAL.
 I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good. I read something about "Fruit-a-tives" being good for all Stomach Trouble and Disorders of Digestion, so I tried them.
 After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia and my general health was restored; and I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives".

JAPAN is certainly to be admired for her bashfulness in stating her demands.

THE wonder is that little Nippon did not ask for the disarmament of all her possible opponents leaving her to build all the war ships she wants.

IT would be easy enough to settle the Irish question immediately if they would all be reasonable. The difficulty is they are all unreasonable.

REASON and patriotism don't mix.

WHAT a time the dentists would have if we all had teeth like that Ontario mammoth, twelve inches in diameter.

WHAT is wrong with that political agnostic. He seems as if he was nothing but question marks.

THERE might be enough power saved to run the city for a few years if everyone would stop talking politics.

ONE of the things that does not get you anywhere is telling people Peck is going to win. It is about as profitable as saying that Stork is going to win.

GOOD FOR NERVE, ANYWAY.

WITH LICENSE (?)

Charged with stealing a motor car, an Irishman is reported to have blamed a policeman. He asked the way to Streatham, and the officer said: "Take the car at the end of the road."—and he did.—Punch.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

November 30, 1911.
 The sale of Section 2 lots commenced this morning. The first sold was a double corner on Atlin Avenue bought by Ald. Kirkpatrick and Ald. Clayton for $1200.

John Kelemet, who came here recently from Vancouver, was found dead in the Queens Hotel this morning with his throat terribly gashed. A new razor was found nearby and the case is apparently one of suicide.

Ald. Morrissey declared at last night's council meeting that the lawsuits entered by the contractors against the city should be settled out of court. The city is fighting a losing fight and the mayor and aldermen know it, he declared.

STORK DOING GREAT WORK

Campaigning Almost Alone But People Are Receiving Him Well Everywhere.

USK NEARLY ALL LIBERAL

Letter Tells of Meeting at Terrace and Indicates Candidates Is Making Good.

Thomas McClymont returned last night from Terrace after addressing a gathering there Monday night on the issues of the day. Mr. McClymont is apt to be very careful about his statements and lacks that spirit of enthusiasm and imagination which sometimes characterizes those who see wonderful things in an ordinary meeting. He is, however, well pleased with the result of the Terrace gathering. It was the most orderly meeting of its kind ever held there for there was no heckling and undoubtedly it was sympathetic to the Liberal cause.

A letter received from a resident of Terrace in connection with the same meeting says: "We had a good meeting here last night. Both Mr. McClymont and Mr. Stork got a very attentive hearing. Mr. McClymont took up the tariff and dealt with it in fine shape. Mr. Stork dealt chiefly with the railway policies of the Government. It seemed to me what the people wanted to hear and when he finished the audience showed its appreciation in no mean manner."

Good for Stork.
 "We had a dance and supper after the speaking. The attendance was over 150 and they were there early. It looks pretty good for Stork here. He will get an even break anyway and very likely a majority."

"L. H. Kenny acted as chairman of the meeting. He is a returned man. He told them that at first he had intended supporting Peck but since studying the matter and hearing Peck he wasn't satisfied as to his professed independence. He didn't stand for any of the principles of Liberalism and if he was anything he was a supporter of the Government."

Yesterday morning Fred Stork spoke at Pitman, Bob Allen, formerly of this city, in the chair. Going on to Usk a meeting was held at noon with J. D. Wells presiding. There were 10 present and the Daily News representative, who sent in the report, says that out of the 10 there will be at least 30 votes for Stork and possibly 35.

Mr. Stork was at Essington last night and this morning held a meeting at O-land. He should be home some time today.

Mr. Stork is kept very busy visiting the people and explaining the issues. Most of the time he is travelling alone and he is being well received everywhere. He may be unable to visit every point but if he passes anyone up he is not through lack of effort but because of the physical impossibility of covering the whole of the large district in the time allotted.

PECK COMMITTEE IS CHANGING METHOD OF REACHING THE PUBLIC

Owing to failure of the Peck campaign committee to get proper support from papers supposed to be favoring the independent candidate, a campaign sheet is being issued, prepared by two of the supporters who have some newspaper experience.

The tone of the campaign sheet is a great improvement over the class of campaign material hitherto imposed on the public by the Peck supporters. It deals with the issues and eliminates the gutter language which has been a feature of all elections for years past.

The electorate will welcome an effort to discuss political issues on their merits even if they do not agree with the sentiments expressed and even though they fail to be convinced, even by skilled political writers.

HAD TO BE FAIR.

 "Yes," replied the old farmer, "but in justice to the college I'll own up that he had no sense beforehand."—Boston Transcript.
