BOLSHEVIKS USE POLITICAL METHODS WITH WORKINGMEN

TERIOJOKI, Finland, May 4.—Copies of Bolshevik posters designed to quiet the strikers of Petrograd during the recent revolution at Kronstadt which have been brought across the border here, show the Communists turned to soft words in their effort to win over the workingmen.

Previous posters were couched in words of command, but these were addressed to "Dear Comrades" and were full of promises. One of them reads:

"Dear Comrades: We offer you the following seven concessions: 'Eighteen million pounds (or 36,07 pounds each) of coal have been ordered from abroad.

"Non-party representation will be allowed on the grain trade commissions.

"Preparations for city vegetable gardens are under way.

"Country workers will be dismissed and sent home from Petrograd because of the short rations.

"Check detachments on the railways are ordered to exempt workingmen. (The 'check' detachments were communist guards who seized any produce brought from the country into Petrograd.)

"Sixty new trains will be operated to the suburbs for workingmen.

"Unlimited requisition of grain will be replaced by the definite quota system.

"Hunger only becomes greater through revolution."

HEARTBURN LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strone, Glasbey, Sask., writes: "I have used Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."

Too Much Competition

She (to young poet): "How much do you get for your poems, Charlie?"

Charlie (with pride): "I have had half a guinea."

She: "Well, isn't that very little? I was reading that Sir Walter Scott got £500 for one of his."

Charlie: "Yes; but writing poetry isn't the business it was before the war. There's too much competition."—TIT-BITS.

Cherful Repartee

"Ah shuah goes pity you, I'll bit o' white trash," said a colored fighter in the first round. "Ah was born with boxing gloves on."

"Perhaps so," said the white boxer, sending home a stinging straight left. "Anyhow, I reckon you're going to die with them on."

OLD BELIEVERS AID ARRIVALS

Thousands of Russian Refugees Cared for by People of Own Faith.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 7.

Just as the Memnonites of the United States have furnished unexpected help to those of South Russia, so the Old Believers, who centuries ago fled from religious persecution in Russia and found refuge in Turkey, are now aiding the members of their faith who were among the hundred thousand refugees from the Crimea.

When it became a question of finding homes for this great army of fugitives from Bolshevik Russia, a committee appeared at the refugee headquarters of the Russian Embassy, speaking the Russian language of 150 years ago, and announced that it represented a group of villages of Old Believers, located near Panderma, on the Marmora Sea, and would take care of as many as possible of their faith.

The men stated their community had left what is now Cossack Russia in the early part of the 18th century, because of religious persecution by the Orthodox church and had found asylum among the Turks, who had, during all these years, permitted them to live peacefully and as a separate community. In the world war some of them had served in the Turkish Red Cross, but had not been compelled to bear arms.

Several hundred homeless Old Believers, among the Don Cossacks, were found and have since become members of the Panderma community.

Swindled!

A small boy was taken to see the new baby, whom he eyed very critically.

"Why, he's got no hair, father," was his first remark.

The fact was admitted.

"And he's got no teeth, father," was the next comment.

The circumstances could not be denied.

"I tell you what, father," was the final observation, "you've been swindled; he's an old 'un!"—TIT-BITS.
