WESTERN DRAMA AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Same Company that Played "That Devil Bateese" Now Seen in "The Desire of the Moth."

There is a western story at the Empress Theatre, a story that grips. It is called "The Desire of the Moth" and is played by the same company that featured in "That Devil Bateese."

The trio Ruth Clifford, Rupert Julian and Monroe Salisbury, make a great team. They attracted much attention in the picture that was shown here recently in the story of the eastern logging camps and are said to be equally good in the western drama.

The Lyons and Moran comedy and the Current Events round out a first rate program.

MAE MARSH SEEN IN VERY EXCITING ROLE

Tangle at Country Roadhouse
 Where Heroine Finds Herself Peculiarly Involved and Luckily Escapes.

Mae Marsh as Susan Sweeney the factory girl, who went to a mountain community to claim an inheritance and found herself in a tangle of exciting circumstances finds for herself an interesting role in which she is seen tonight at the Westholme Theatre.

Instead of the splendid hotel which she thought she had inherited, Susan finds a miserable roadhouse, frequented by the worst element in the country.

Mae Marsh

Goldwyn Pictures

Rather than take the advice of Austin Strong, a young lawyer, and political leader, and return home, Susan determines to stay and do what she can to relieve the distress caused by the liquor traffic in the town.

Miriam, the sister of Strong, elopes with a dissipated young man and they seek shelter in Susan's hotel, intending to be married next day. When they have registered Susan begs them to consider what they are doing, and succeeds in persuading them to return home.

The hotel register is about to be used by a rival of Strong's in the campaign then waging. Dick, the young man, tries to buy the fellow off and a furious fight ensues in which the blackmailer is killed. Susan, anxious to save Strong's political prospects, shields Dick and smuggles him out of her room at midnight.

This is only part of the story.

The fishing boat H. & R. left for her fishing grounds on Saturday afternoon. The Alten went out yesterday morning and the Norden arrived from Vancouver Friday night.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ADMINISTRATION ACT — and —

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ALBERT COLE, DECEASED, INTESTATE
 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN of an Order made by His Honour F. McE. Young, Local Judge, in the above matter on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1919, as follows: John H. McMullin shall be allowed to swear to the death of the said deceased as occurring on the 27th day of October, 1917, after the expiration of one month from the date of the first publication of notice of this order, unless in the meantime proof is furnished to the registrar of this Court at Prince Rupert, B. C., that the said deceased Albert Cole was alive subsequently to the said 27th day of October, 1917.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the said John H. McMullin do publish notice of this order in the Prince Rupert Daily News, a newspaper published at Prince Rupert, B. C., for a period of one month, dated at Prince Rupert, B. C., this 6th day of February, A. D. 1919.
 JOHN H. McMULLIN,
 Official Administrator.

CERCLE FRANCAISE MET ON SATURDAY

La Cercle Francaise of Prince Rupert, which was formed here during the latter months of last year, had its first meeting on Saturday afternoon. The president is Mrs. Aivazoff, and its secretary, Miss McLenaghan.

The object of this new organization is to promote the knowledge of the French language, and through this means, of the French people among Canadians. All the conversation and affairs of the Cercle are conducted in French. Already there is a good membership, and as there are many more people in town who speak and understand the French language, a larger membership roll is expected soon. The Prince Rupert Cercle expects to amalgamate later with the Cercle Francaise of Vancouver.

There may be something you want. See the classified column on Page 5.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land. Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims. Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or records same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions. For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.

Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by these allotments, a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.
