FALSIFIED ITS

Letter From Employees of Vulcan Iron Works Shows Contentions Were not Correct.

There is considerable discussion as to whether or not there was a real grievance when the men went on strike at Winnipeg and in sympathy with whom many of the local workers are out. The matter is being discussed now that the first excitement of the strike is over, with the result out of an unnamed stream, which nows south and drains into Houslung Bay, Lancommission should have the final that everything points to a trike and that overything points to a trike and that overything points to a trike and that overything points to a trike and drains into Houslung Bay, Lancommission should have the final that everything points to a mis- gara Island, near the S.
