The presentation was made by Art. Noble who read the address which recounted some of the services which had been rendered by the young officer and expressed appreciation of those services and good wishes for his future weifare. The address was printed in gold and was signed by all those present.

The Reply.

In replying Lieut. Young spoke of the many friends that he had ive Council, has been pleased to order:found since his return, and there were no friends like the old friends. He told a number of lefuge Creek, established humorous anecdotes and thanked them all for the kind expression of their confidence. He was not able offhand to give an account of the strenuous times at Zeeall about it.

Season Opened Yesterday With a Good Crowd of People Present.

The swimming beason opened yesterday at the Salt Lakes with several hundred people present. The warm sunshine proved most inviting and the water, while not yet what might be termed comfortably warm, was sufficiently attractive for most of the visitors to bathe. Among those present were a number of the city aldermen who were anxious to see how the Swimming Club was spending the money which they had voted. The expressions of appreciation of the work of the club were general. The cleaning up which had been done, the building of the dam, the beach for the considerable.
