Member for Victoria Spoken o At Ottawa as Possible Minister of Agriculture.

STRIKING P. O. CLERKS PERMANENTLY RETIRED

Dr. Simon Fraser Tolmie, M. P. of Victoria, is spoken of strongly as a successor to T. A. Crerar whose resignation was accepted at the week end as minister of agriculture.

In his statement to the House of Commons, Sir Robert Borden said that Mr. Crerar resigned solely on account of the budget which he could not support.

D. D. MacKenzie asked regarding the striking post office clerks and Sir Robert replied that the employees had been distinctly warned and must regard themselves as permanently retired from the public service.

Dr. Tolmie is a successful farmer in the neighborhood of Victoria and was for many years Dominion Live Stock Commissioner. He never took any part in politics until he was chosen by the Unionist convention to contest the constituency at the last election. He is claimed by both Liberals and Conservatives, but has no particular interest in either. On his return to Victoria after the first session he addressed the Saanich Liberal Association, giving an account of the work of the session.
