Peace Terms Not Yet Signed

PLENIPOTENTIARIES RETURN TO GERMANY WITHOUT SIGNING UP

GERMANS NOT READY TO ACCEPT TERMS AND GET UNTIL SUNDAY FOR REPLY

Washington, Nov. 8.—Information reaching Washington through diplomatic channels today indicate that if German plenipotentiaries are not ready to accept immediately the surer terms offered, Marshal Foch will give them only until Sunday to sign, no effort at compromise or evasion from the Germans to be tolerated, they must take what the Allies and the United States ask for and lay down their arms or there will be the interruption of the great offensive which is destroying the German military machine.

London, Nov. 8.—The German proposal for an immediate national suspension of hostilities has been rejected by Marshal

FRENCH MAKE FURTHER BIG ADVANCES

Move Forward From Bethel, Captured Yesterday, and Take Liart, An Important Railway Junction.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The French troops resumed their advance along the whole front this morning, according to the reports issued by the War Office here. The French units have reached the important railroad junction of Liart, about twenty miles north of Bethel. They are now about fifty miles due east of St. Quentin, and are advancing rapidly, driving the German forces precipitately before them.

This swift advance eastwards and northwards is placing the whole of the German line to the north in jeopardy.

WELL KNOWN CITY EMPLOYEE DIES FROM INFLUENZA

Jack Morrison Was Well Known and Efficient Craftsman and His Passing Will Be Great Loss.

While the city was celebrating the signing of the armistice which brings about peace with Germany, last night one of the citizens was putting up his last great fight for life and was vanquished. Jack Morrison, known by everyone, respected and trusted by the whole community, passed away as a result of an attack of pneumonia following influenza. He was taken ill about a week ago and taken to the hospital, but on Monday he was removed to Mrs. Stephens' home, where he succumbed last night.

Mr. Morrison came here seven or eight years ago and in 1912 took a position in the telephone department and has been connected with it ever since as wire chief. Only at the last meeting of the Council the chairman of the Public Works Committee referred to the excellent work that had been done by Mr. Morrison and that the success of the utility was largely due to his efforts. This morning Alderman Dybbavn referred again to the loss the city suffered and stated that it would be impossible to fill the position as Morrison had done.

In the Tsimpsan Lodge of the Masonic craft and as a member of the St. Andrew's Society and of the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council the late civic employee was well known and highly valued as a member. He was one of those thorough workmen who credit to the whole craft and on that account particularly his loss is to be deplored.

Mr. Morrison was born in Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia, about 39 years ago. His mother and sisters are at present living in Seattle and his brother Kenneth is on his way here to attend the funeral and is expected tomorrow morning.

The British War Pictorial is a new magazine of war pictures and articles which would have been timely had the war continued. As it is the publication seems to have come rather late. It is exceedingly interesting and well illustrated. The pictures are printed in the blue tint which has become so popular of late.

REVOLT IN GERMANY IS SPREADING; PRACTICALLY ALL FLEET DISAFFECTED

London, November 8.—Practically all the German fleet has revolted, according to a despatch from The Hague. The rebellion in other parts of the country is spreading and it looks as if the whole of Germany will very soon be seething with revolt.

At Hamburg the soldiers have taken possession of the city. Amsterdam, Nov. 8.—The port of Hamburg is completely in the hands of revolutionists. London hears the cities of Bremen, Schwerin and Tilsit have joined the German revolt. Prince Henry of Prussia was pursued and fired on by marines when he left Kiel in an automobile carrying the red flag.

Copenhagen reports the greater part of the German navy with red flags hoisted, has left the harbor. Kiel is in possession of mutinous sailors. There are no guards on the German-Danish frontier.

London, Nov. 7.—Virtually all the German fleet has mutinied, says a Hague despatch. The men are complete masters at Kiel, Wilhelmshaven, Heligoland and Cuxhaven. The Kiel workers have joined the navy in the general strike.

DEVELOPING JEDWAY MINE

Machinery Going Over to Producers Mine Where 250-Foot Tunnel Will Be Driven.

The development of the mines on Presby Island is likely to be of great importance to the district. Just now a shipment of machinery is being made to the Producers Mine at Jedway. It is in the city today and a compressing plant over the mine on the next boat. A power is being installed in the mine to reduce the cost of operation. A ten-inch water pipe will be laid to the mine. A 48-in. Kincaid waterwheel, similar to the ones handled by the Prince Rupert Engineering & Construction Co. of this city. This is the first of a number of other developments to be carried out in the area.

Mr. Cole has chosen in preference to all others. It is in Vancouver. Mr. Buckingham, who has been in the hospital here suffering from a broken hip since last year, is to have charge of the mine. He is an experienced manager. Mr. Hagen who is connected with the company, is at Jedway now in charge of the installation. It is proposed to drive a tunnel to tap the vein of copper ore from below. As soon as the work should commence the company expects to be producing ore early in February. There are a number of other valuable properties at Jedway which it is expected may be developed in the near future. As the labor situation begins to clear following the ending of the war, considerable activity may be expected in that neighborhood.

WHAT CAN TAKE PLACE OF WAR?

Archbishop Du Vernet Asks for General Reconstruction in Social, Religious and Industrial World.

The following letter was received this morning from Archbishop Du Vernet:

Sir,—With the coming of peace we need to discover the moral equivalent of war. For over four years the war has furnished us with a cause larger than our selfish interests to which we have willingly devoted ourselves in a loyal spirit and in a practical manner, each doing something to further the great end. This has brought a certain amount of unity of purpose into all our lives and bound us together both as individuals and also as an empire and even as an alliance of many nations.

What in peace can take the place of this great unifying cause? What is to be the moral equivalent of war? Speaking ideally, it is the cause of righteousness founded upon the principle of mutual service.

Speaking practically, it is the cause of reconstruction in our economic and industrial world, especially in the way of bringing about a better relationship between capital and labor, the relationship of co-partnership in work and profit, and the granting as a right to every worker, the opportunity to live a clean and human life.

Reconstruction in the social and religious world, the bringing about of more true fellowship between all classes in the community, the inspiring of more loyalty to every cause which helps to bind us together in mutual service, the creation of a league of nations to maintain the peace of the world, the revival of a less selfish and more brotherly type of religion in our midst, a more earnest recognition of God as the Father of us all and the Spirit of Christ as the spirit of self-sacrifice for the good of others, and a practical drawing of the Churches together as one inspiring body.

In a word—the establishing upon earth of the Kingdom of Righteousness.

This is a cause—large enough to lift us out of our selfish interests—grand enough to evoke our heartfelt loyalty—wide enough to enlist all classes and nations—and high enough to raise humanity to the Throne of God.

Yours truly,
F. H. DU VERNET,
Archbishop of Caledonia.

WHOLE COUNTRY CELEBRATED YESTERDAY

Threatened Revolution Seems to Have Influenced Announcement Which Was Not True.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The despatch sent out yesterday morning by one of the leading press associations to the effect that the Germans had signed an armistice and surrendered set the whole country celebrating from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It now appears that the announcement was premature or that the censor was suppressing what has really transpired. It is said that the threatened revolution in Germany will have to be handled with great care, may be the cause of the news from the armistice conference being withheld.

DAWN OF A NEW POLITICAL ERA SAYS RIGHT REV. BISHOP BUNOZ

"This is a day of exultation for us all. The flash that has brought us the glad tidings of the defeat of militarism, of the removal from our eyes of the ghastly spectre of war and of the declaration of a glorious peace has filled our hearts and to the brim with unspeakable joy. We are entitled to every bit of it.

"This is a day of thanksgiving to God who has given victory to those who fought for the triumph of justice. And after Him we must remember the brave soldiers who have given their lives for the freedom of their country. Their blood has not been shed in vain. Besides the first fruits of victory, which we enjoy now and we owe to them, their sublime sacrifice will remain for generations an inspiration of unselfish devotion to the welfare of the country for which they have died.

We celebrate today something more than a common victory, we hail the dawn of a new political era, an era pregnant with golden potentialities both social and international. Their realization demand the good will and intelligent co-operation of all. The terrible ordeal we have just gone through must result in some permanent betterment of the human race."

Bishop Bunoz in address to the people at celebration yesterday.

PRINCE RUPERT RUSHES PAST HALF WAY MARK

Now Has $166,700 Subscribed for District Towards the $300,000 Needed to Complete Quota.

Yesterday it was prophesied that Prince Rupert would pass the half way mark of their quota today. They have done better. The total amount raised in the district up to last night was $166,700 and there is great work going on today that should bring the totals to the $200,000 mark or thereabouts. It is expected that the news of the great and victorious close of the war will loosen up some of the purse strings of those who have so far kept them tight. It makes it certain that this will be the last loan of the kind and therefore the last opportunity to get government securities on such favorable terms.

The amounts raised in the district up to last night are apportioned as follows:

Prince Rupert	$140,000
Port Simpson	3,000
Port Essington	7,000
The two Hazeltons	8,300
Telkwa	3,300
Total	$166,700

Port Simpson reports that they will increase their amount to $5,000 before they finish. Messrs. Bainter and Walker are at Georgetown today making a canvass, and the work is going on well generally.

A wire received this morning from John Nelson of Vancouver, chairman of the Press Committee, emphasizes the fact that for the welfare of the Dominion it is necessary to have the loan fully subscribed. The boys have to be brought home and kept while overseas and it would be a shame to stint them in any good thing after the gallant work they have done.

NEW REGISTRAR GENERAL

The resignation of J. C. Gwynn, Registrar General of Titles, is announced. It is understood that Gwynn has accepted the position of liquidator for the Dominion Trust Co. Frank James Staepoole of Victoria, formerly of Nelson, is to be appointed Gwynn's successor.

NO OFFICIAL NEWS OF PEACE

Washington Reports That Up to 2 O'clock This Morning no Word Had Been Received.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—(8 a.m.) Other than that arrangements had been made to receive the German plenipotentiaries on the Allies' side of the French lines between 8 and 10 o'clock last night, no other official word has come through regarding the expected signing of the armistice.

At 2 a.m. Washington officials of the State and War Departments who were keeping all night vigil, still were without information indicating that German envoys had signed the peace terms.

MUCH IMPROVED

The situation at Anyox in connection with the epidemic of influenza is improving from day to day. There are very few new cases being reported now, and it seems that the upper hand has been obtained over the disease. To date there have been altogether forty-eight deaths from influenza and its accompanying developments.

One doctor and two nurses have been able to be spared from Anyox and have gone to Stewart to relieve the situation there. They left on the 5th of November, and their help would be very welcome.
