Fitting Rebuke
By Prairie Residents.

J. J. Gaetz, Liberal and supporter of the Stewart Government in Alberta, has been elected over his opponent, an Independent Unionist candidate, by a large majority. Looked at from a distance it seems as if the defeat was a just rebuke to a man for introducing into provincial politics an issue which does not belong there. Apparently the people of Red Deer were wise to the scheme and refused to be turned aside from their determination to support a certain policy by any injection of Dominion affairs into the provincial field.

It is a common practise of late to try to stampede a constituency by a loyalty cry, a wave of the flag or some similar outside influence. That the people of Red Deer did not allow this, shows their good judgment. Let us fight Dominion elections on Dominion issues and Provincial elections on Provincial issues, also city elections on city issues. To do otherwise is to pervert politics into gross partyism.

Conference of Premiers Soon.

There is to be a conference of provincial premiers soon with the object of preparing for the return of the soldiers from overseas. Hon. John Oliver, Premier of this province, has taken the initiative in having this meeting called, and at it the Dominion Government will be represented. The conference should produce results if the various premiers go to it with plans already in mind and with a determination to deal in a big way with the issues. It is the biggest question that has ever presented itself to any Government or group of Governments. It is not a matter to be considered hastily, neither is it a matter that can be delayed. The very best advice must be taken and the returned men themselves must be consulted.

Farmer John
Man Who Does Things.

John Oliver has shown himself capable of handling big things since he has taken the lead in the British Columbia Government. He has made few if any mistakes. He is a resourceful man and he has the confidence of the majority of the people of both parties. Probably there is no more resourceful man in British Columbia than Farmer John. He has little polish of manners and he sometimes offends by his abrupt and decisive demeanor. He has, however, good horse sense which he got from the farm, and he can be depended upon to use it in the interests of the men who have been fighting the country's battles.

When John Oliver wanted a settlement of the P. G. E. question he went after it day and night until he got it. When he wanted a railway built on Vancouver Island to get out spruce for the Allies he went after the Ottawa Government and in spite of the most strenuous opposition of all the C. P. R. forces headed by Lord Shaughnessy and backed by a number of the two by four members of the Dominion Cabinet, he did not rest day or night until he got the railway work started. He had to go to Ottawa himself against the wishes of some of the members of his cabinet and to beard the whole Dominion Government and argue it out with them before he got the required promise that it would be done, and even when the promise was given it took more effort to have it implemented.

In the University Of Hard Knocks.

Honest John may look like a backwoodsman sometimes, but in this country of backwoodsmen we know that the very best men are trained in the university of hard knocks. That is where John got his training. He has learned to give and take. He does not make a good peg on which to mount a plug hat, but he does carry beneath his tile enough of the grey matter well corrugated to make him a match for the brightest minds the country has produced. He will be the commanding figure in the conference of premiers and if he does not formulate most of the plans or make the other men's plans workable he will not be the same John Oliver that has been handling provincial affairs since the death of the late lamented Premier Brewster.

When the provincial by-election was on in Victoria Premier Oliver stumped for the Liberal candidate against the soldier candidate who was elected. As soon as the election was over and the soldier was elected, Premier Oliver immediately recognized the position of Frank Giolma and consulted with him on matters of policy connected with the returned soldiers and continues to do so. That is not machine politics, but it is good sense. The man is big enough to get out of the conventional rut and do things in his own way, and he has more respect for an honest opponent than for a cringing supporter.

Team Work Needed for Few Days

While the people of Prince Rupert, in common with the people in almost every part of the world, are being sorely tried just now it must not be forgotten that the men at the front have been in much more difficult situations than confront us and they have come through with colors flying.

With courage we must all face the issue and keep cheerful. By helping our neighbors we can best help ourselves. Team work and community work is the order of the day.

It must not be forgotten that in spite of our difficulties here it will be necessary for us to continue our preparations for providing money for the men at the front. Victory bonds will be on sale commencing October 28 and we shall all have to do our best when the sale opens, even though we have needs of our own to supply.

Keep up the Food Supply
and Help
Make Victory
Sure

OUR soldiers must be fed; the people at home must be fed. And—in spite of Germany's murderous campaign to cut off the Allies' Food supply, by sinking every ship on the High Seas—an ample and unfailing flow of food to England and France must be maintained.

*This is National Service—
Not to the Farmer only—
But to YOU—to everybody—
This appeal is directed*

WE must unite as a Nation to SERVE—to SAVE and to PRODUCE. Men, women and children; the young, the middle aged and the old—all can help in the Nation's Army of Production.

EVERY pound of FOOD raised, helps reduce the cost of living and adds to the Food Supply for Overseas.

PLANT a garden—small or large. Utilize your own back yard. Cultivate the vacant lots. Make them all yield food.

WOMEN of towns can find no better or more important outlet for their energies than in cultivating a vegetable garden.

Be patriotic in act as well as in thought.

*Use every means available—
Overlook nothing.*
