Timely RECIPES

PENOCH PEACH CAKE

1/4 cup shortening
2/3 cup granulated sugar
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Few drops almond extract
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup milk
1 cup canned cling peach slices

Penoche Topping

1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 tablespoon all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
Cream shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Blend in beaten egg and flavorings. Sift together flour, salt and baking powder. Add to creamed mixture alternately with milk, beginning and ending with dry mixture. Beat thoroughly. Pour into greased 8-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from oven, arrange thoroughly drained peaches on top and spread with penoche topping. Place under broiler 2 to 5 minutes or until mixture is bubbly and runs evenly over cake.

Penoche Topping: Blend all ingredients together. Serves 6 to 8.

TOTTENHAM, England (C) — Mrs. S. Grebe, cook at a local training college, has been paying for all her own meals. Since somebody told her she was entitled to free meals she has asked the college to reimburse her to the extent of £90.

CANADIANS IN ACTION—Christmas 1951 sees Canadian troops still under fire in Korea. This photo shows Canadians moving into the line. During the year, additional units of the 25th Brigade arrived to reinforce Canadian forces fighting for the United Nations in Korea. As the year drew to a close, members of the 2nd Battalion of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light

Infantry, first unit to go to the Far East, were returning after a year's service and were replaced by other Canadian units. Throughout the year, ships of the Royal Canadian Navy patrolled the waters off Korea and took part in coastal actions. Pte. William Kinky of Alyansh will be heard in an Army broadcast from Korea tonight. (CP PHOTO)

On New Year's Eve, many villages hold a memorial service, during which the names of the departed are called out (usually by the chief councillor) and the dead are remembered in silence. New Year's Day is one of merry-making.

Season's Greetings

Once more may the Christmas Star send its blessing down with the same glad meaning it brought to Bethlehem. And as we yield our hearts to the spirit of tenderness which pervades the Christmas air, may we remember the heavenly love which came into this world the night Christ was born.

Let us remember, too, that we keep Christmas truly, only when we permit the love of the Christ to enter our hearts and lives. May you enjoy a truly Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
