Sure ways of getting a free Christmas turkey are: get one from the boss, win in a lucky draw or be a good bowler. The latter may even come in for two turkeys as did Harvey Copeland and Jerry Ford last week. Both belong to the Men's Five Pin League and the Mixed Bowling League and both bowled first and second high scores in each league game last week, with a turkey as their prize.
Tuesday night's mixed bowling gave Copeland high single and second high scores in each league game of a remarkable 784.
For the ladies, Agnes Pierce captured high single and high three with 314 and 736—and the turkey. J. Warren was second ladies' turkey winner.
Four turkey winners also were recorded in B Division, going to E. Ball and V. Eder in the ladies' section, and to J. Reil and W.

Garbutt in the men's department.

Team high single and high three was taken by Canadian General Electric with scores of 1,397 and 3,789.

Fashion Footwear, however, is out in front in league standing by one point over 383 Cabs.

Results:
A Division—Fashion Footwear 4, Hill's Shoe 4, Pushovers 4, Canadian General Electric 3, Cantels 3, Canada Life 3, Cook's 1, Penguin Hobby 1, Shenton's 1, Sheet Metal 1, Wallace's 0, Headpinner's 0, Great West Life 0.

B Division—Sons of Norway 4, Hi-Golds 4, Booth One 3, 383 Cabs 3, Conrad Seals 3, Van's 3, Rupert Butchers (default), Red Devil's 1, Miller Bay 1, Prince Rupert Plumbing 1, B.C. Packers 0, Pioneer Market 0.

Red Wings
Win Again

DETROIT (CP)—The seemingly invincible Detroit Red Wings gained another two points to their substantial margin of leadership in the National Hockey League by blanking the Montreal Canadiens 4 to 0 last night. Their lead over second place Toronto Maple Leafs was extended to 11 points.

It was Goalie Terry Sawchuk's second straight home shut-out and his seventh of the campaign. The Wings' triumph over the Canadiens marked the third game Sawchuk has whitewashed the Montrealers.

The Wings did not tuck away the verdict, however, until the final period. Marty Pavelich scored after five minutes of intense action and the Wings nursed the 1 to 0 edge until the last 12 minutes before staging a three-goal outburst.

Toronto Maple Leafs dropped a 2 to 2 decision to the Boston Bruins at Beantown last night after having defeated them 3 to 2 a Toronto Saturday night. In the extra Sunday night game New York Rangers nipped Chicago Black Hawks to quit the cellar and drop the Hawks into it.

Montreal slapped down Chicago 3 to 1 Saturday night. Week-end National Hockey League scores were:

SATURDAY
Chicago 1, Montreal 5.
Boston 2, Toronto 3.

SUNDAY
Toronto 2, Boston 4.
Montreal 0, Detroit 4.
Chicago 2, New York 3.
Holiday NHL games will be:
Tuesday—New York at Detroit, Chicago at Boston.
Wednesday—Montreal at Toronto; Detroit at New York.

Maple Leafs
Honor Broda

TORONTO—Managements of Toronto Maple Leafs and Maple Leaf Gardens, in a unique ceremony at Saturday night's National Hockey League game, paid tribute to the great goalie, Turk Broda.

An automobile was presented to the Turk and there were numerous other gifts.

Manager Connie Smythe was the principal speaker. He announced that, if Toronto gets in the playoffs this winter, Broda will get in one of the games so he may have the honor of having played in 100 play-off games.

The crowd cheered loudly as Broda gathered up his wife and their three daughters and drove around the ice in his new car.

Smiles 'n' Chuckles

The couple's young baby was having a bout with colic, and the young father, a pharmacist, was convinced that the nursing bottle was causing the trouble. He punched several additional holes in the rubber nipple and it worked fine—the baby's colic subsided.

Several days later a young mother came into the drugstore where he worked and asked for a familiar nostrum used in treating colic. "We had the same trouble with our baby," he sympathized, "and I think I can give you a valuable tip. Simply sterilize a needle and punch several holes in the nipple. It works like magic."

The young mother looked at him with astonishment. "Er-a, thanks," she said doubtfully. "But, good heaven's, doesn't it hurt?"—"Life's Like That" in Reader's Digest.
