PUGILISTIC SHOW SOON

The Booth Memorial Boxing Club is making arrangements for a program of boxing and wrestling bouts in the Moose Hall on Saturday December 9.

The program promises to be exceptionally interesting with the main event of the evening a wrestling bout between Frank Folger and the champion of the Canadian Scottish. Other glove slinging competitors during the evening will be well worth watching.

Under the capable supervision of James Clark the club members are getting down to the serious business of training. Exceptionally fine form is already shown by some of the young pugilists. Albert Mah and Don McCouver both promise plenty of action. Stan Scherk and Kosta Killas look dangerous while other active members are Elmore Hankinson, Ted Arney, Bill Bond, Jack Eby, Casey Nishio and Jack Wearmouth.

WEDDED AT PALO ALTO

Miss Elsie Finley Becomes Bride Of Kenwood Green

A quiet wedding of local interest took place in the beautiful Leland Stanford Memorial Chapel at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, on Thursday, November 23 at 7:30 in the evening when Elsie Ann, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Finley of this city, was united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Elton Trueblood to Kenwood Green B. A., elder son of Captain and Mrs. Reg. Green, also of this city. The chapel was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white chrysanthemums and the altar was effectively illuminated with white candles.

The bride appeared charming in gold-studded blue crepe and wine colored hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of dark red roses. Her attendant, Miss Sheila Stuart, wore royal blue velvet with hat to match and a corsage of white gardenias.

The groom was attended by Edward V. O'Gara of San Francisco.

The bride's mother was gowned in wine-colored crepe with matching felt hat and wore a corsage of pink roses.

After a short honeymoon in San Francisco, the young couple will return to Palo Alto where the groom will resume his studies at Stanford University. In the spring they expect to return to Prince Rupert to take up residence.

Among the wedding guests was Miss Audrey Wrathall of Prince Rupert.
