OTTAWA, January 5: (CP)-The outstanding event of 1938 in respect of trade policy was the simultaneous signature of trade agreements between Canada and the United States and between the United Kingdom and the United States at Washington on November 17. The agreements constitute a long stride forward in the establishment of better trade relations between the British Commonwealth | lights modified to permit of the and the United States. The governments of Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India and Newfoundland have contributed to the success of the negotiations by consenting to the reduction or surrender of preferences hitherto enjoyed by certain of their products in the markets of the United Kingdom Thus the agreements reached may the British Commonwealth of Nations, and indicate a rapprochement in matters commercial between the world's greatest empire
