NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

XXVIII., No. 115.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1939.

PRICE: 5 CENTS

BRITAIN IS TRYING FOR AGREEMENT

Note To Be Sent To Russia! Anti-Aggression Matter would probably note to Moscow this into the Anglo-French anti-the Soviet and France.

Swict Russia's rejection of Britain's proposal for a pact has not dampened British hopes for an serement. The negative answer given by Russia had been expected since last week. At that time Soviet news declared the British proposal was unacceptable because Russia nothing in return for her pledges to aid France and I

Delomatic quarters in London' Paris said it was almost certain the British would make a further proposition to Russia, The Soviets want an outright military alliance or at least pledges of while trying to protect such neighboring states as Latvia VISITING guarantee of aid from France and e Chamberlain government is er strong pressure to come to ment with Russia, For this Hitler and Mussolini Personally neutral observers believed; in would make concessions in next approach to Moscow. a mal agreement can be reached Italian dictators are continuing Halifax meets Foreign Vice- along the French frontier. y at Geneva.

from the Franch border. SULIKOSKI

d On All Charges Arising Out Gun And Knife Affray In Local House

day trial.

time to analyse the evidence the jury before allowing it to drew attention to the conflict- German Planes Are ses supported the evidence of tter. He read and expounded left it to the jury todecide w much of the evidence to bewas acquittal.

Locomotive of Royal Train Ready

haul Their Majesties the King and Queen on their 3,000-mile trip across Canada. The royal tour will mark the first time one engine has made a continuous journey of this length, and 2850's record will comprises a background of deep | Engineer Eugene Leclerc, of not be equalled on the tour.

shining stainless steel, royal blue, ning boards are painted Royal service between Quebec and Montsilver and gold. The semi-stream- Blue.

Watch Frontiers Of Their

Countries With France

board; the crest of the Canadian gold.

The general decorative scheme the engine numbers.

Ccheduled for the biggest job lined engine bears the royal arms | A panel of aluminum leaf laid ever assigned to a steam loco- over the headlight which has in diagonal squares matching the motive, Canadian Pacific engine been sunk flush with the front panel on the cars of the royal 2850, photographed at the Angus of the boiler-casing; Imperial train extends half way on the Shops in Montreal, is ready to Crowns decorate each running tender. The panel is outlined in > Pacific appears beneath the win- The jacket on the locomotive. Gold leaf has been employed on blue on the underframe, smoke- Quebec, who was fireman on the Specially re-fitted and decorated box, front of engine and all mar- royal train in 1901, will be the ginal work on engine and tender. first Canadian engineer. He has real for approximately 48 years.

Whole Dominion Rejoices As Their Majesties Land Today At Quebec For Epochal Visit

BANS NAZI GATHERING

Threatening Letter At Kelowna

provincial police here, received threatening letter after banning an Austrian Nazi meeting here He is not taking the letter seriously, Sergeant Macdonald says.

Sergeant Macdonald is known in Prince Rupert, having been a member of the old city force here before local policing was taken over by the province.

LOCAL WOMAN BEREAVED

ROSSLAND- Funeral services will be held here Thursday for Joseph Hadfield, 82, who died last night. A daughter is Mrs. George Casey of Prince Rupert. The late Mr. Hadfield was a well known pioneer of Rossland. having followed mining.

LAND AT AMOY

TOKYO-Domei News Agency reports from the Chinese port Four or five British warships are believed to be in Amoy Harbor.

QUOTATIONS SUSPENDED

LONDON-Seeking to stem the export of British capital, principally to United States, London stock brokers have reached erican securities until further

Florida

Play boy Potter D'Orsay Palmer, bute from the air. a fist fight. Sheriff Hutches said leans. Along the way shipping of happened but that he understood sirens in tribute. Palmer had been beaten up by a | Quebec is a bright scene with Later on the pier the King and wife. During the domestic strife, is also the tricolor of France. the fourth Mrs. Palmer filed and Three boys of juvenile age walk- then withdrew separate maintain-

HAIR-RAISING

tlers' arrival.

Statesmen of Country Assemble to Give Welcome to Monarchs at Historic Quebec-Thousands of Loyal Subjects Acclaim

QUEBEC, May 17: (CP)-For the first time in his-Sergeant Alex Macdonald Receives tory, a British King, while reigning, has set foot on Canadian soil. This memorable epoch occurred at 10:30 this morning at historic Wolfe's Cove at Quebec with the land-KELOWNA, May 17: (CP)—Ser- ing of King George VI. All Canada rejoiced and celebratgeant Alex Macdonald, chief of ed at the safe arrival of the King and Queen. Beautiful weather conditions prevailed and thousands of loyal and cheering , subjects, led by the statesmen of the Dominion, were assembled to do homage to Their Majesties.

Last night at 11:30 the liner Empress of Australia which brought the King and Queen to Canada arrived opposite St. Jean, Island of Orleans, fourteen miles below Quebec, and a few minutes later dropped anchor. This morning the white * (CP) - Denmark has * liner moved up to Quebec to land * cautiously accepted a * Ineir Majesties. It was a thrilling + German offer of negotis.ght as the royal flotilla moved in. + ations for a non-aggres- + The Canadian destroyers Skeena sion pact while Sweden, Empress of Australia down the riv- Norway and Finland + er late yesterday, led the way and have politely declined the cruisers Southampton and Glas- + Chancellor Adolf Hitgow, which had convoyed the Em- + ler's proposal for paralpress across the Atlantic, followed. + lel accords. Flying boats and seaplanes of the Royal Canadian Air Force, which had met the royal flotilla in the Gulf, soared overhead. The shores were lined with cheering thousands. Hold-Up Many had stayed up all night in Hold-Up Man order to keep points of vantage. of Amoy that British and Uni- present to extend a welcome to ted Stated blue jackets have Canada at the landing of Their Money Search landed in Amoy's international Majesties. The only Canadian cabsettlement on Kulangsu Island. inet ministers not present were Hon. Ian Mackenzie, minister of national defence, and Hon. J. G. lor left yesterday afternoon on the Gardiner, minister of agriculture, police boat P.M.L. 8 for Anyox There were presentations to Their where another search will be made Majesties during the morning.

At noon there was an official luncheon by the Canadian govern- zie in a robbery under arms. Mcment at Chateau Frontenac. This Kenzie was taken along to assist the an agreement not to quote Am- afternoon Their Majesties were tak- officers in finding the cache. en on a motor drive to points of scenic and historic interest around Train This Evening were gathered wherever they went. ner at the Chateau Frontenac with Following Delay Lieutenant Governor E. L. Paten-

The royal party received Canada's first greeting yesterday when three i flying boats of the Royal Canadian | The train, which was to have country with a view to devising Potter D'Orsay Palmer Dead In Air Force flew to sea and circled the been in at 11 o'clock last night, Empress of Australia as she was will arrive at 8 o'clock this evenapproaching the Gulf of St. Law- ing. Delay was caused by a derence. The King and Queen went railment of seven cars of a frieght SARASOTA, Florida, May 17 .- on deck to acknowledge the tri- train one mile east of Croydon on

> Chicago and Sarasota family, died along either shore of the river as W. H. Tobey was on the derailed yesterday as the result of injuries the ship sailed up the north chan-train and is coming in on the dereported to have been received in nel to anchor off the Isle of Or- layed one. he did not know exactly what had all sorts dipped flags and sounded on board the Empress to extend a > group of thugs in Bradentown, flags unfurled and bunting untied Queen took their places on a richly to lend splashes of brilliant color to | decorated dais where they received Just a few days before, Palmer the city which is wrapped in the the Canadian Privy Councillors, patched up a rift with his fourth red, white and blue of Britain which Dominion cabinet members and an admiral's uniform and the Queen where Premier Maurice Duplessis was in a pearl grey ensemble. Dur- and Lieutenant Governor E. L. Paing the brief manoeuvring of the tenaude as well as Cardinal Villenship in landing. Their Majesties euve awaited them.

The Welcome

Danes Flirt With Germany

Premier Mackenzie King was And Police In

Provincial Constable D. W. Tayfor $800 in cash and checks which was taken from the general store two weeks ago by Colin G. McKen-

Derailment East of Prince George Cause of Trouble

the Tete Jaune subdivision which much married scion of a wealthy There were thousands of bonfires tore up the track. Superintendent provincial and civic leaders.

In a specially built car Their Majesties were carried through narrow For the reception the King wore streets to the Legislative buildings

JOHANNESBURG, May 17: (CP) stood on deck waving response to Premier Duplessis pledged the opportunity to find sunkoski Ams I waiting police made their presence — Descendants of Huguenots the roaring crowd which at times King and Queen the loyalty of Quewounding with intent to seized by Dutch authorities when the mode of arrival of the new rec- known and took the boys into cus- (French Protestants) who settled became almost unmanageable. The bec province, "in particular of Cangrievous bodily harm, wound- they made a forced landing in Hol- tor of St. Andrew's College, Air tody. This morning they appeared in South Africa 250 years ago will King and Queen then disappeared adians of French descent." The without intent or a fourth land. The pilots said they had lost Vice-marshal Sir David Munro. Sir in juvenile court before Magistrate wear "Huguenot beards" during the Prime Minister William Lyon King handed him a reply in French might be assault. The only their way. They were held for David arrived in a bombing plane McClymont and, pleading guilty, anniversary celebrations of the set- Mackenzie King and Hon. Ernest paying tribute to the loyalty of LaPointe, minister of justice, went French Canadians.

commander-in-chief and high Nazi pullovers that come from Scot- lar expires June 30. party officials for further inspec- | land. opposite France's Maginot line.

ick Sulikoski, 38-year old Pole. acquitted by an Assize Court here last night on a charge Pays Tribute to Memory of His counts in connection with a gun and knife affray in a local ng house on February 15

R. L. McLennan appeared for defence. Ir. Justice A. I. Fisher took a the late Mrs. Nellie Mork.

Aleutian's Master

empted murder and on two Sister-Was Guest of Neighbor From Norway

Mr. and Mrs. John Dohl, Eleventh Sulikoski had pleaded self Avenue East, received a surprise nce and that not he but Jack visit last night from Capt. Carl Nilter, 54-year old railway engin- sen U.S.N.R., master of the Alaska was the aggressor in the Steamship Co.'s steamer Aleutian, New Arab State Being Set Up-The jury deliberated for which was in port with the Rotary hours and a half, returning convention tour party enroute to verdict at 6:35 p.m., after a Alaska. Capt. Nilsen was a near neighbor of Mr. Dohl in Norway. In company with Mr. Dohl, Capt. Nil- LONDON, May 17: (CP)— The Sen, while here, visiting the grave British government announced to Trap Of Police W. Brown was crown counsel company with Mr. Dohl, Capt. Nilin Fairview Cemetery of his sister, the fact that independent wit- Seized In Holland law as it applied to the case Pilots of Military Ships Said They Had Lost Their Way opportunity to find Sulikoski AMSTERDAM, May 17.— Two EDINBURGH, May 17: (CP)—A selves to cigarettes and chocolates, questioning by military authorities. for his installation.

Popular Figure DEFENCES In Naval Dress

His Majesty Prefers Less Formal "Civies" When Occasion Permits

Ottawa, May 17: (CP)- While the King's wardrobe for his tour with countries are hoping that LONDON, May 17:-German and of Canada and the United States' will include at least six different WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17 British Foreign Secretary their speedy tours of defences uniforms, the royal visitor can be -President Franklin D. Rooseveli depended upon to prefer grey is endeavouring to speed up legismisar Potemkin a week from Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy lounge clothes or black-coated lation which would continue the opened a new military airport at morning suit whenever the oc-currency stabilization fund and the town of Cassella, only 25 miles casion permits. For sports—and the President's power to devalue the itinerary provides for two or the dollar. The administration's Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Ger- three periods of recreation and authority to maintain the fund many arrived at Saarbrucken rest-the King generally wears plus and the President's power to regu> course, the King will be seen in White House to discuss the situa-Visits Grave Here word and deed to the surname tatives and awaits Senate action. "the Sailor King" he is a popular Senator Miller refuses to discuss figure in the deep blue, gold- the President's strategy but says PLAY BOY braided uniform of Admiral.

Jews Are Far From Being Satisfied

Parliament today its new policy in regard to Palestine. The principal proposal is to create a new Arab Three Juveniles Rob Suburban Florida. State with sixty percent Arabs and forty percent Jews. The Arabs may be placated somewhat but general opinion is that the Jews will be far from satisfied.

THE MODERN TOUCH

Roosevelt Endeavours To Speed Up Legislation Providing For Continuance Of Currency Stabilization

where he was joined by his army fours, heather wool stockings and late the silver content of the dol-

President Roosevelt has called tion of the German fortifications! On more formal occasion, of Senator Miller of Arkansas to the uniform. As the Sovereign and tion. The bill to extend the powhead of the Royal Navy, and with ers over currency has been apfighting record entitling him by proved by the House of Represen-Roosevelt's great concern is over the delay.

The President is proposing a survey of "frozen capital" in the some means of forcing its release PALESTINE and bringing about an increased measure of prosperity. He has taken the matter up through a message to the anti-monopoly committee of Congress.

Boys Walk Into

Grocery Store in Presence of Officers

ed into a police trap Monday night ance suits. by breaking and entering Phillips' Grocery on Eighth Avenue West. The boys entered by lifting a window. After they had helped themwere remanded for sentence.