PACIFIC COAST

Expert in Military Strategy Foresees Great Naval Engagements Off Our Local Coast-Menace of Germany and Japan.

A gloomy prophecy as to the probability of conflicts in the Pacific Ocean was made by the well known lecturer on military strategy, T. W. M. Maguire, at a meeting of the Royal Colonial Institute, London, Eng. Mr. Maquire described the Pacific Ocean as 80 chains, thence east 80 chains, thence the "strategic centre of mankind and Great Britain "that nothing west could give them security but a 3065 to point of commencement, contain- erty. Deposits have hitherto at any rate suggestive of evil, and race of military men, as with nations like Germany and Japan it was a word and a blow." The yellow races, he said, were going to demand equality of treatment. Japan was at present Great Britain's ally, but that would only scribed lands: last so long as the British alli- north side of Williams Creek, where the ance was worth having. Great Britain's territory in the Pacific from the creek shore, thence south 30 Ocean, he said were by no means 30 chains, thence west 40 chains to point safe, and the Japanese might attack and defeat the Americans any day.
