FDITORIAIS

MUCH OVERRATED COUNTRY

The progress of the war in Finland indicates that the military strength of Russia has been very much overrated. The system of oppression that has been carried out there is such as to depress the people and they have no heart to fight. They have little to fight for.

We look back with a good deal of appreciation to the time when the Russian army saved Europe from the Germans. Later we hoped great things from the Russian revolution for many people felt that the Russian people had it in them to make something of the country. Then came the gradual growth of a despotism, more cruel and ruthless than anything Russia ever had in the past.

Today the country is anything but prosperous. The people are poorly fed, poorly clad and badly housed. Under these conditions it cannot be expected that they would be good fighters.

WHAT WILL RUSSIA DO?

It looks to us as if Russia is bound to fight the democracies sooner or later. They have been so aggressive that even if Finland is overcome some country is bound to dispute their right to general overlordship. Now that they have shown that they are not as formidable as might have seemed, nobody is dreading a Red attack.

What a pity it is that the Scandinavian countries could not have got together and formed a mutual pact for defence of their countries. With all united, Russia would not have dared try to rob Finland of her nickel mines. Even as it is she may never get them.

It looks as if the Communist newspaper that announced Russia would try to force Roumania into a treaty was reflecting the wish if not the intention of the Kremlin. It is possible it was an attempt to get the world reaction to such a move. Russia will move against Roumania if she thinks she can get away with it. If the opposition is too great she will keep her hands off. Much will depend upon what happens in Finland.

GROW POTATOES

It has been suggested to us that we should advocate growing potatoes on vacant lots in order to make sure of a food supply in case the war continues. The idea would be a good one if the lots could be cultivated with any rea- LOST-Dark brown handbag with sonable amount of effort. A few of the lots have been tramped until they are covered with grass and it might not be so very difficult to turn the grass over but even there the task is greater than most people imagine. Those who have never tried cultivating in Prince Rupert cannot imagine how difficult it is to dig up even half a lot. Many have done it and others woll do it but it is no job to be undertaken except by a man who has strong arms and a stout heart and a determination to complete the task no matter what the effort.

By all means grow potatoes. The crop is assured if the grower has the will to do the work.

Final Game of First Round in Borden Street League Ends in Draw thers won two, drew one and le . T.O. Hume of Bankers had high standing with Tigers in second Individual scoring: place and Wild Cats bringing up Malkinsthe rear.

Strong wind hampered the Pan- Connell thers' passing system in yesterday's Sandels game and caused a number of mis- Withers kicks. Tom Yamamoto was a tower Stegavig of strength for the Panthers on the Handicap full back line Capt. Carl Johnson Totals led the forward line on several at- P.D.S. and T.O .tacks. A strong gust of wind di- toah verted his best shot of the game, a drive to the upper corner of the Timms

Wild Cats were unable to field their best team until the second half and thus lost the advantage of Home Oilhaving the wind at their backs.

One of the reasons for small Brooksbank scores in these junior games is un- gran doubtedly that the boys are using Wight the full-sized playing field at Kont Acropolis while their average Handicap weight is but seventy-five pounds and age ten years.

The teams were: Wild Cats- Jimmy Olsen. John pearson Thompson, Jiro Akazi, Sonny Mar- Charad 12 tinson, Sonny Boulter. Walter Long- Mellin 50 will. David Stevens, Fidie Ciccone Tyler (cantain), Don Hartwig, Kaono Handicap Kadanoon and John Strand with Totals .00 Robert McArthur as snare.

Panthers-Buddy Morris. Buddy Bankers Beesley, Tom Yamamoto. Charlie Malking Currie, Carl Johnson, Frank Hing- Home Oil ston, Glen Olsen. Bobby Currie. D.D.S. and T.O. George Kadowaki, Louis Sorrenti and Jim Ladicos.
