Dr. Large Shows Trip Pictures

Young People At Meeting This

The Interdenominational Young People's Society held its regular weekly meeting on Monday evening in the Presbyterian Church Hall with the president. Miss Winnie Cameron, in the chair.

After the worship service and a short business session, Dr. R. G. Large entertained the members with moving pictures of his recent trip to the Old Country. Both the pictures and Dr. Large's explanatory remarks were greatly enjoyed by all present. The meeting closed with a prayer by Rev. H. G. Funston.

VANCOUVER ELECTION

VANCOUVER - City voters turned dawn daylight saving and proportional voting plebiscites in yesterday's civic elections in which four aldermen, four school trustees and three Parks Board members were chosen. Miss Helena Gutteridge, C.C.F. candidate for re-election, was defeated, all other C.C.F. candidates suffering similar fate. Non-Partizan Association candidates won all but one contest in which George Buscombe, Independent, was selected for the council. The successful candidates were: city council-Henry L. Corey, Charles Jones, Willard D. Grevell and George Buscombe: park commission-R. Rowe Holland, E. H. Grubbe and J. McNeely: school board-Blackwood, Mrs. Ada Crump, F. J. Dawson and A. G. Fellowes.
