> Only 67 years ago, Rev. G. M. Grant's journey from Halifax to Vancouver in only 133 days was so memorable that he published his diary - 368 fascinating pages of adventure over untamed lands. Today - Montreal to Vancouver by Trans-Canada Airways in 171/2 hours.

> In Mr. Grant's day - "In twelve working days we had travelled 506 miles . . . A month from Toronto and we are on the Saskatchewan". Now - "Leave Montreal 9.00 p.m. Breakfast in Winnipeg. Lunch in Vancouver . . . a hostess who serves refreshments aloft". While you sit back and smoke, the plane sweeps across lakes and rivers, plains and mountains following the trail of pioneers - men who toiled laboriously with axes, plows, picks making today's Canada.

> As the maplike panorama unrolls, you see a country which enjoys luxuries our forefathers never dreamed of, free institutions they forged for us, security, space and resources which are the envy of a harassed world. Canada is a good place to live in - and the tobacco industry has helped to make it so. For the industry has invested millions in factories and processing plants, has helped to add tobaccogrowing to our agricultural wealth, and supplies thousands of Canadians with employment in manufacturing and distributing products which increase the enjoyment of all.
