SIR WILFRID AND SIR JOHN.

In having across from him on the floor of Parliament Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader of the opposition, Premier Borden is handicapped as no prime minister at Ottawa has been before unless we find a parallel in Hon. Alexander Mackenzie's experience when Sir John Macdonald led the opposition previous to -------1878. Then, as now, says the Toronto Star, an adroit and experienced ex-prime minister led the forces of attack. Then, as now, the opposition leader knew more about government and the departmental details than those who sat on the treasury benches. But even in that case Sir John was under a cloud, owing to the Pacific scandal which, for a time, hampered him, as nothing hampers Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The present leader of the opposition is where he is not because of a scandal, but because his administration attempted to put into effect a foreign trade bargain for which the country was at the moment too prosperous to feel the need. The administration anticipated the country's marketing necessities. It came to grief because of too great a prevision. It was dealing in futures, while the electors-many of them-wanted presents, and got

From 1878 until his death Sir John did not face such ability and authority in an opposition as Mr. Borden now does. Neither Mr. Blake nor Mr. Laurier had the prestige of fifteen years in office during the period of the country's greatest prosperity. Nor was Sir Wilfrid faced by an influential opposition. The Conservatives after 1896 were long disorganized and weakened by 1836 feuds. Sir Charles Tupper was a great parliamentarian, but he had been abroad for years, and he could never quite patch up a strife which had he returned sooner might have been prevented. Then came Mr. Borden, almost as new in politics as he was new in leadership.

Today nearly all the experienced administrators in Parliament are in opposition, and are led by the man who alone has ranked as yet with Sir John Macdonald in prestige. That Mr. Borden's way will be a rocky one for a while may be expected.

HOW COLONEL SAM HUGHES LOVES CANADA.

Colonel Sam Hughes wants to take one hundred thousand of our Canadian boys from the nursery about the time they are able to lisp their alphabet, arm them to the teeth with as many rapid fire weapons as their childish strength will carry, put them through a set of goose steps before they are in long pants, have them shooting at an imaginary enemy by the time they are 15 and ready for slaughter before they are old enough to vote, says the Edmonton Capital.

Then, with all these boys brought up from the cradle to Prince Rupert Branchbelieve that war was the great aim and end of man; that to maim and slay some foreign people, preferably a weaker or defenseless people, was chivalrous, noble and grand, the mine would be well and truly laid, the militant and belligerent spirit properly fostered and every preparation complete for the desolation of one hundred thousand Canadian homes.

Australian Government Curing Drink Habit Adopts Famous NEAL CURE

Sending Sunshine and Happiness Into Hundreds of Darkened Homes Instead of Inflicting Fines or Prison Cells Upon Her Unfortunate Citizens has set an example worthy of imitation by the other nations of the world. Owing to the extent, enormity and the awful consequences of the drink habit they have for years past been investigating its cause, effect, treatment and possible cure. In the year 1910 Rev. A. C. Rankine, commissioned by that government, visited the United States, and after thorough investigation of drink habit treatments, returned to his government last September and gave a detailed and lengthy report recommending the adoption of the NEAL THREE-DAY DRINK HABIT CURE. The government South Australia adopted his report, and established the cure in a large govern-ment sanitarium, where those addicted to the drink habit are treated at government expense, instead of being fined or sent to prison cells.

During the first ninety days 182 persons so affected were perfectly cured by the Neal treatment at government expense and restored to citizenship. In selves of the Neal treatment in private sanitariums in Australia. Scientific research and investigation of the centuries has recently culminated in the establishment of the fact that the drink habit, so called, h caused by the poison of alcohol stored up in the system by the long continue or excessive use of alcoholic liquors addition to this, reports show that more write for booklet giving than double that number availed them- tion.
