EVACUATED CHILDREN REAL JOY

Mothers Find London Youngsters "Do Their Bit" in New Homes

LONDON, Oct. 2: (CP)—Evacuated children are born "mothers' little helpers" 100 young married couples in Hertfordshire who opened their homes to 213 London children discovered.

"We were dreading the extra work but actually they are so helpful we don't notice it," one of the new mothers said. The children have been going about with the butcher, baker and greengrocer delivering parcels and have also formed a garden squad to dig up weeds.

Three times a week those between 12 and 14 years of age hold a meeting to discuss what they call "doing our bit." They have elected 18 prefects who oversee the behavior of the others.

One of the unwritten rules is that no boy may bring angle worms in to the house and leave them on the kitchen table.

Another thoughtful plan which involves the little girls is the caring for the "under fives" during play hours to relieve their hostess "aunties" of added responsibility. The girls also wash their own socks daily.

But, with the coming of autumn, the children will attend Hertfordshire schools—to be taught by their own teachers, who have been billeted in the same neighborhood.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2: (CP)—Enlistments in the University of British Columbia Officers Training Corps have reached the number of almost a battalion. During the past week there were 100 new recruits, bringing the total to over five hundred.

"SPELL IT BACKWARDS!"

"And you get the word MILK," points out Elsie, the Borden Cow. "And that's just what KLIM is—pure, fresh, whole milk with all the cream left in, powdered by removing the natural moisture content. Simply add Klim to cold water—whisk with a beater—and you have an instant supply of creamy pasteurized whole milk. I can't recommend anything better for baby, home or camp."
