THE FLY IN THE OINTMENT

DAILY EDITION

We are hearing every day what a wonderful thing is Velvet. this air line service but it is not all lovely. A local businessman says that formerly when he sent a check to Montreal Laundry. he could count on it being away a couple of weeks at least Now it may get back in about a week causing much worry to the bank manager.

A FRENCH-CANADIAN'S VIEWS

A French language weekly "Le Jour," published in Montreal and circulating among French speaking people! mostly of the province of Quebec, has the following by the editor in a recent number:

'I have already said and demonstrated that Canada, apartments. Phone Red 444. tf could not be neutral in a war in which Britain was engaged. This is a fact we are powerless to change. The questtion, then, is not to find out whether, in the circumstances, For sale-1937 deluxe Fordor we have any choice between peace and war but rather! what should be the extent of our participation. Useless | 000. Phone Red 415. digressions and hysterical outbursts on the part of a few thousand super-patriots and a number of isolationist dreamers will not serve to turn us aside from the one mer- FOR LEASE-The whole of the ciless reality: it is impossible for us to be neutral . . . I find neutrality not only impossible but unimaginable. We must remember the words of scripture: 'Who is not for me ist against me.' If we remained passive in the face of war, it would be an act of hostility not only toward England. towards France and toward United States, upon whom we are dependent in a hundred different ways, but also to- YOU can make soft or hard ice ward the majority of Canadians, who can scarcely be ex-| cream on a Mills Master Coun-| pected to allow us to withdraw into our ivory tower and look on with our arms crossed during the massacre of the only nations to which we are really attached, the only ones we can trust, the only ones with which we have any true relationship from the points of view of language, belief, tradition, way of life and political aspiration—not to mention powerful economic links which it would be foolish to try to break . . .

"Those ridiculous dwarfs who belong to our "independent guards', with their red braid and tin swords, forget that there are nine provinces in Canada in which the great majority will never consent to remain neutral in the event of war." continues the writer. "The day any government is weak enough to yield to this sort of blackmail, there will be revolt in more than one part of the country. Demagogues will climb aboard the bandwagon and Quebec as a whole will be held responsible for the attitude of an extremist few. Unheard of violence will ensue, and Canadian unity will be as seriously compromised by nonparticipation as it could be even by conscription. SCANDINAVIAN woman Scatterbrained extremists, who exist in the other provinces as well as in ours, will complete the destruction of! confederation. Both French-speaking and Englishspeaking Canadians will come out more disunited than they went in: the fruit of that sort of neutrality will be war, the worst kind of war, war between 'Races' in the same country."
