CURIOUS SITUATION

It is a curious situation where fighting is going on between Russia and Japan and also a species of fighting between Japan and Great Britain and yet Russia and Britain have still not decided to throw in their lot together against a common enemy. That is one of the odd things about these undeclared wars.

Another curious situation is for Britain to be sending Japan war supplies at a time when British supremacy in Asia is being threatened by Japan.

Another anomaly is for United States to be sending huge quantities of war materials to Japan when Japan is threatening to drive all foreigners including United States out of Asia.

In Europe we have Britain and France declaring that if Germany takes Danzig, they will be at war with her while Germany berates Britain and France and declares she is going to take Danzig.

Evidently Japan and Germany are co-operating to try to frighten Britain and France into giving them what they want without recourse to war.

So delicate is the situation that anything may happen at any time. It needs only one overt act to start a war which it will be very difficult to stop without the loss of possibly millions of lives including many women and children.

DOGS FOR POLICE

The suggestion of Hubert Ward that police dogs be used to track down persons who are lost in the woods seems to be a very good one. This would be particularly true in the case of a child being lost in the woods when quick action would be necessary to prevent tragedy. When Prince Rupert becomes a permanent air base with planes always available one might be pressed into the service on occasion to go to the rescue in a case such as the Butedale tragedy to carry dog and trainer to the scene and possibly effect a rescue while other people are thinking about it.

THAT THUNDER STORM

The thunder storm this morning reminds us that one of the advantages of living in Prince Rupert is that we have so few thunder storms. The one this morning was one of the worst we have ever had and there was not much to it, only a few flashes of lightning and a few claps of thunder followed by a shower of rain. We seem to get these little interludes about every second year. It reminds us that we are a part of the wicked world and tends to awaken us from our slumbers.

Stag Party In Prince Rupert Club For Bill Lambie Prior To His Marriage

The Prince Rupert Club was the scene last night of an enjoyable stag party when about eighty friends gathered to honor William Lambie prior to his marriage on Saturday to Miss Caroline Mitchell. THINKS SOMETHING MAY HAPPEN

Editor, Daily News:

I am glad to note that the Technocrats agree with me in one respect. They predict a complete smash by 1942. I, with others, believe a smash is inevitable unless something is done at once.

The difference between my own opinion and practically all other views is that I believe it is still possible to carry on as we are, providing just two ideas are carried out. These ideas naturally produce automatic, beneficial results which spread out in a growing circle which benefits 99.99 per cent of the population. They merely consist of being consistent in the operation of the present system.

I would suggest the advantages to be derived by those who are at present most involved in our financial resources and those who have misrepresented the people for years to stop and read their histories. Do not kid yourselves that 'It cannot happen here.'

I would also suggest a possibility. Should either of the two old parties have a platform including what I have in mind I think they would receive at least 90 per cent of the votes at the next election. Were they elected on that platform and carried out their pledges as is the usual custom—it is time some form of capital punishment was made legal.

Mr. Stewart, manager of the B. C. Oil Fields, is here on his way to Otard Bay, Queen Charlotte Islands, with further oil drilling equipment which will be taken to the Islands tonight on the Prince John. Mr. Stewart's company is carrying on extensive exploration on the Islands.

H. H. Stevens, M. P. for Vancouver, has aroused the ire of the local fraternity by suggesting that judges give prejudiced decisions contrary to the clear meaning of the law.

KEEP COOL WHEN LOST

Inspector Barber Gives Valuable Advice in Speaking Before Gyro Club

The importance of keeping one's head when lost in the bush and guarding against impulses which may lead to disaster was stressed by Inspector C. G. Barber, provincial police, in speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club yesterday at luncheon. The officer told of some strange things that lost men had done.

In the course of his talk, Inspector Barber gave interesting reminiscences of patrol experiences in the wilds of the Peace River Block and Northern British Columbia. One incident was the tracking of moonshiners at Christmas out of Port St. John. The north, Inspector Barber said, had an irresistible draw back to all who had ever been here. He, himself, had experienced it.

Speaking of the case of Constable Clifford Prescott, lost on Princess Royal Island, the inspector expressed doubt that it would ever be ascertained what had been his fate.

W. M. Watts, president, was in the chair at the luncheon and, in addition to the speaker, another guest was Bruce Brown of Vancouver.

On Saturday afternoon of this week the local Gyro Club will entertain Gyro and Gyrette delegates who will be here on the way south from the international convention now being held at Jasper Park. A party numbering twenty-four and possibly more will arrive by the afternoon train and sail early in the evening for Vancouver on the Prince Rupert. There will be a tea and reception and the visitors will be taken for drives around the city.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Peaceful Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can watch about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dizzy, tired and peevish.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of our red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.
