BRITAIN'S MODERN SOLDIERS MUST STUDY ENGINEERING

In Britain's highly mechanized army, recruits must s'audy not only the science of war, but the art of making machinery behave. Here are some youthful non-commissioned officers getting that training. A sergeant is instructing men from several artillery units in engine maintenance at a class in the Woolwich Arsenal, London. Incidentally this is one of the first pictures permitted in the famous arsenal since the Great War.

"Service de Luxe" and "Ambush" Being Featured at Capitol Theatre

"Service De Luxe," a comedy starring Constance Bennett, and ',Ambush,' a suspenseful drama with Gladys Swarthout and Lloyd Nolan comprise a double bill pregram being presented tonight at the Capitol Theatre.

"Service De Luxe," a fast-moving farce, deals with an exclusively personal service bureau which undertakes almost any assignment from its clients. When a young man comes to New York to sell his patent tractor, Miss Bennett undertakes his management with laughable and complicated situations as the result. Vincent Price. New York Stage star, makes his screen debut in this picture, the cast also including Charles Rugglen, Mischa Auer, Helen Broderick and Joy Hodges.

"Ambush" revolves about the plot of a "perfect bank robbery," Miss Swarthout being precipitated into the hide-out of the bank ! burglars where she has gone to attempt to rescue her young brother from their grasp. The drama goes on to a thrilling climax. Other member; of the cast, besides Europe with Great Britain involved Miss Swarthout and Lloyd Nolan, in the conflict, the Daily News is are William Henry, William Fraw- urging the importance of Prince ley, Ernest Truex, Broderick Crav. - Rupert being adequately fortified ford and Rufe Davis.
