Cyril Large, organizer for technocracy, addressed a gathering in the Oddfellows' Hall Thursday night. The attendance was satisfactory although the hall was by no means full. The address followed much the same lines as that delivered in Prince Rupert. Leaving the hall at the end of the lecture, people were heard to remark: "Pullen is right, why wait two years for it."

At the commissioners' monthly to solve traffic problems.

meeting some changes were made in the curfew law. Children means any boy or girl under sixteen for the future and the time when the young people must go home will in future be nine o'clock instead of 8:30, except for the two months coinciding with the school vacation, July and August, when they may stay out until ten.

Halibutter Mae West Towed In After Breakdown—Sockeye Fishing About To Start—First Big Tourist Day of Season.

Having broken down off Banks Island with a burned out bearing while on her way to the fishing banks the local halibut boat Mae West, Capt. O. J. Hansen, was towed back into port by the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative packer Azurite, Capt. Sam Snidal arriving Saturday night. The Mae West is having the necessary repairs made before another start for the fishing grounds.

Salmon canning in this district will get under way at the first of next week with the opening of fishing with sockeye nets on Sunday evening. The canneries which will operate are now in readiness, having pretty well completed preparatory work during the past few weeks.

Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Coast arrived in port at 5:55 Sunday morning from Ketchikan and, after discharging a large quantity of mild cured fish in tierces for transshipment over Canadian National Railways, sailed at 11:30 a.m. for Seattle.

Donald Jenkins arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Vancouver to join the steamer Prince John as purser. The Prince George is now nearing completion of annual overhaul at the local dry dock.

With three large coastal liners in port this was the first big tourist morning of the season at Prince Rupert, some five hundred or so persons being in town. The Prince Rupert, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived at 7:30 from Vancouver and sailed at 1 p.m. for Alaska. The Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived at 8 o'clock from the south and sailed at 10:15 a.m. for Skagway and other northern points. At 8:30 the Prince George, Capt. James Watt, arrived from Alaska and sailed at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Vancouver. The Prince Robert had 250 passengers on board, three disembarking here. The Princess Louise had 197 passengers and also disembarked three here. There were 79 passengers on the Prince George including three for here.

After an absence since Tuesday on a trip to Kitimat, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Eviitt and S. D. Johnston returned to port yesterday on Mr. Eviitt's new cruiser Confidence. The trip was in the nature of a fishing expedition for Mr. and Mrs. Eviitt while Mr. Johnston visited Kitimat in connection with the adjustment of a fire insurance claim on the recently burned home of Rudolph Braun, a well known farmer.

Southbound following her first voyage of the season in the Alaska tourist service, C.P.R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. William Palmer, was in port from 3:30 to 5:30 Saturday afternoon. The vessel had on board 192 passengers of whom four disembarked here. Most of the passengers were round trip tourists.

With a fair list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 10 o'clock last night from Vancouver and waypoints and sailed at midnight for Stewart and Anyox whence she will return here tomorrow morning southbound.
