Gentle Octopus Kills His Mate

Aquarium Manager Witnessed Strange Struggle To Death In Water

VANCOUVER, Nov. 18: (CP)—"Murder in the Aquarium" might be the title of the thriller witnessed by Ivar Haglund as he prowled around the tanks that house marine specimens at English Bay here.

Haglund, manager of the aquarium, said the water in the tanks was murky because of a storm outside and it became murkier than ever when Oscar, a female octopus, clashed in mortal combat with her mate, Oliver.

"Through the murk we could see red legs flashing around and grappling," said Haglund. "When it was all over Oscar was dead.

Now he's looking for another mate for Oliver.

BIG CROWD AT CONCERT

Toc H Has Successful Show For Winter Fuel Fund

Several hundred people enjoyed a splendid program of an unusual variety last night at the Moose Hall under the joint auspices of the Daylight Group of Toc H and the Moose Lodge. Following the variety turns, a dance was held to which many more came and all enjoyed themselves to the full. Bill Lamb, Syd Kielback and the Toc H padre, Rev. Roy Durnford, with numerous helpers, organized and arranged one of the finest entertainments of its kind ever put on in Prince Rupert. Members of local militia units played a prominent part. A considerable sum should be available for the winter fuel fund as a result.

The program was as follows:

"O Canada."
Opening remarks, Padre Durnford. Selections, Sixteenth Canadian Scottish pipers.
Humorous songs, Mrs. H. T. Lock, accompanied by H. T. Lock.
Japanese fencing.
Instrumental duet, violin and piano, Misses Phyllis and Aileen Hamblin.
Character sketches, Reg. King.
Vocal solos, Private B. D. Bell, Canadian Scottish, Mrs. J. S. Black at piano.
Dancing Exhibition, Mrs. Hodgson's pupils, Mrs. Black at Piano.
Vocal selections, Mrs. Brocklesby, Mrs. C. E. Cullen at piano.

During an interval of the dancing the combined Sixteenth Canadian Scottish Pipers and Leslie Pipe Band played three numbers—"The Seventy-Ninth's Farewell to Gibraltar," "Brown Haired Maiden" and "Forty-Second."

"God Save The King."

The applause given each item amply proved the audience's thorough enjoyment and appreciation.

Following the conclusion of the Variety Program, Mrs. Black's Orchestra provided music for dancing until 2 a.m. Jim Bacon acting as master of ceremonies.

It's the cumulative effect of advertising that counts.
