No Compulsory Military Duty In Canada As Yet; Volunteers Being Asked

OTTAWA, August 26: (CP)—Defence Minister Ian Mackenzie announced last night that volunteers will be called from the non-permanent militia at once to bolster up the permanent force in such special military duties as manning coastal defences and guarding "certain vulnerable points."

The minister's statement made it clear that "no officer or man shall be under compulsion to report for duties considered necessary for national security at this time."

Canada's air force units were ordered yesterday to be in readiness to move to stations they will occupy in case of war.

Berlin Insists That Polish Issue Is Being Peacefully Met; Feuhrer Calling Halt

TURNING POINT SAID TO HAVE COME EARLY THIS MORNING—EARLIER PREPAR-ATIONS BY REICH FOR INVASION SAID TO HAVE BEEN RESCINDED

"REALLY BIG DECISIONS" BEING ARRIVED AT IN BERLIN, ROME, PARIS AND LON-DON SAYS OFFICIAL GERMAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN

BERLIN, August 26: (CP)—All contrary indications notwithstanding, it was reliably stated in Berlin today that Chancellor Adolf Hitler was now definitely moving for a peaceful settlement of the Polish issue. The turning point, a spokesman contended, had come at 2 o'clock this morning. At that time, the informant said, an order to begin operations along the Polish border at Danzig was rescinded. The informant stuck to his viewpoint that war had been averted even when he was showing later developments including Germany's prohibition of private aviation, the stoppage of boat service to Danzig, cancellation of a large number of trains and designation of Upper Silesia as an "area of military operations." All these measures, the informant said, had been decided upon earlier and were now being executed as it always took time for an order from the top to come through to those who must give it effect. High Army quarters, the informant said, had strongly advised Hitler to show the same willingness to negotiate that Polish President Moscic ti had shown in his reply to President Roosevelt. The result, the informant said, was British Ambassador Sir Neville Henderson's mission to London today. Paris and Rome were also advised of Hitler's latest offer, the informant said. This assertion was borne out by in ormation divulged by a government spokesman this morning to the effect that "really big decisions" are being arrived at in Berlin, Rome, Paris and London. At 2 o'clock this morning telephone and telegraph communications with foreign countries were resumed after an interruption of seven hours.

Nations Of Europe Continue Feverish Preparations With Hitler's Next Move Awaited BERLIN, August 25: (CP)-Germany, like the other nations of Europe, continued feverish preparations for war today although it was still insistently denied that, despite irritation of Polish incidents, many of which were reported here, that German troops had not at any point crossed the frontier into Poland. Rumors to this effect man communique last night as being "wholly groundless."

German troops in the Gleiwitz area (southwestern Poland) were reported to have been moving towards positions on the Polish border since early last night but, up to 11:30 p.m., however, there had been no crossing of the line nor had any firing been heard.

It seemed for a time late yesterwhich Secretary of the Interior William Stuckart was returning from Danzig to Berlin. Stuckart rushed into the Chancellory early last night to report. There were reports of no less than four incidents in which Polish anti-aircraft guns had fired upon German aircraft in Baltic waters. One of these was a German, flying boat with seventeen passengers on board. None of the planes were brought down.

As the German press continued; unabated its campaign against Poland, reports were published of twenty-four minority Germans in! Poland being killed by Polish soldiers at one point in Poland while, at another, eight were said to have, been slain.

CANADIAN PRIME MINISTER SENDS MESS-AGES DIRECT TODAY TO MUSSOLINI, HITLER AND MOSCICKI

OTTAWA, August 26: (CP)-A message has been sent by Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King to Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy, Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany and President Ignace Moscicki of Poland urging them to use their great power and authority to avoid war. The message was sent through the consuls in Canada of Italy, Germany and Poland.

The message said: "The people of Canada are of one mind in believing there is no international problem which cannot be settled by conference and negotiation. They equally believe that force is not a substitute for reason."

Mr. King added: "The people of Canada are prepared to join what authority and power they may possess to that of other nations of the British Commonwealth in seeking a just and equitable settlement of the great problems with which the nations are faced."

The messages were sent after a meeting of the cabinet council yesterday but were not released until today when those to whom they were addressed would have received them.

Local Militia Unit Called Out Today To Volunteer For Defence Duty, Parade 2 p.m.

'The war fever struck Prince Rupert directly this morning when it became known that members of the local militia unit, the 102nd Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, had been called out to volunteer for home defence duty. The local order came several hours after Canadian Press dispatches received by the Daily News had announced that such action was to be taken in connection with Canadian militia Meantime, Lieut. Col. S. D. Johnston, commanding officer of the local unit, ordered his men to parade at 2 o'clock this afternoon to receive instructions for future duty which would be on a voluntary basis.

As the local unit consists of 135 men, the muster order effects the employees of a number of local business and industrial establishments.

Col. Johnston would reveal no details of what the nature of his unit's activities would be nor of any arrangements that had been made. He admitted, however, that there would be definite duties for all to do. It would appear that these duties would, for the time being at least, be of local character and purely as a precautionary measure.

A news story published in the Vancouver Sun today Says that "a reliable report stated that a detachment of artillery troops had left for Prince Rupert early in the day to operate in conjunction with the militia forces there." The Canadian Press was unable to confirm such troop movements.
