Usual Radio Auction For Salvation To Be Held Junior Chamber of Commerce In

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will, as usual sponsor a Christmas broadcast auction over he meal radio station in aid of the Salvation Army Christmas relief work. The Junior Chamber, at its regular monthly dinner meeting last night, decided to once again ronsor this worthy undertaking. the entire funds raised thereby to be used entirely in local seasonal relief and comfort activities. The consisting of radio committee George Rorie, Tommy Fraser and John Connell was authorized to proceed with arrangements.

The Junior Chamber will also carry out Christmas decoration of the downtown streets again this year, a committee consisting of Stan Saville, Bob Parker, Fred Wight and Alf Rivet being placed in charge.

on this matter was left in the ATT TITTI T hands of the secretary.

The secretary, T. J. Williams, presented a digest of a report from the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada with respect to the civil service. This was a lengthy document going into various phases of the civil service in Canada, Great Britain and the United States, concluding with a recommendation that a Canadian Institute of Public Affairs be organized, the object of which would be to further develop the application of the mer system, now largely in effect, the civil service of Dominion, provinces and municipalities.
