CRISIS IMPENDING

may plunge Europe into war. One does not have to be a pessimist to be led that far. It is just as sure as we are here that, if Great Britain becomes involved in a war against the dictatorships, Canada will be in it almost immediately. Parliament is in session and quick action will out bloodshed as long as it is peace with honor. The whole Empire, evidently, is against another Munich. If the Empire is forced to fight, it must be the best fight we can put up. There must be no holding back. The fight will not have been of our seeking but it seems that Canada has awakened to the realization that we must defend ourselves has seemed inevitable for some time in face of the aggressive attitude of the dictators. If war does come it will be a fight in which the keenest people will be those who are

SPORT

Canadian-born BrigadierGeneral A. C. Critchley, formerly of Calgary, Alta., has become the czar of sports in England. Here is an architect's drawing of the White City stadium in London, England, as it will look when enlarged to accommodate 163,000 spectators.

Critchley will spend £250,000 on the enterprise and will also be assisted by the government in his latest venture. They will establish a new underground (subway) spur to serve the stadium, providing service for 1,000 passengers per minute. The outstanding English

As Manager of Montreal Canadiens

MONTREAL, Jan. 28: (CP) Cecil Hart, manager of the Montreal Canadiens, was given leave secretary of the club, will take over the management temporarily, assisted by Babe Siebert, star defence man of the Canadiens who have not been doing so well this

Hart has been manager of the Canadiens for eight years in all of which the Habitants got into the play-offs and twice won the Stanley Cup for world's champion

Auriol Joliet and Pete LePine are mentioned as permament successors to Hart.
