Small Fortune Is Found By Pair Of Boys Digging In Land Off Hays Creek

Following the finding of $26 in a can in an outhouse on the place of the late Elias Venzyl in the Hays Creek area off Wantage Road, boys have been digging for further hidden treasure. Yesterday Bill Scherk and George Zbura made an important find of $500 secreted in a tin which was buried in a hole near a well. Unhesitatingly the boys turned the money over to the police.

Chief of Police C. C. Jacklin, in a statement today, commended the two boys for their honesty and announced that he had recommended to the official administrator that they be suitably rewarded. Before this can be done, however, certain technicalities have to be complied with. Permission will have to be obtained from the consul of the country of which Venzyl was a subject.

The find of the boys was made up of two $20 bills, eighteen $10 bills and fifty-six $5 bills.
