COOKING

Bruce Huttchison recently published an article on J. W. Blair of Vancouver tied for cooking in which he bewailed the fact that Canada had second place with 97. no distinctive Canadian dish. There was no originality in Canadian food, he said. He contrasted this with England TWO FINALS where, according to his version, they ate soggy potatoes and Brussells sprouts and throve in spite of their cooking. To make up for this England had developed Shakespeare and Keats whereas Canada had no national genius to offset the mediocre cooking.

We feel that we must come to the defence of the English cooking. It is true that they eat suet puddings which are probably very indigestible but not more so than many of the concoctions served at midnight in this country. However, we deny the tough beef and the soggy potatoes The pride of the English housewife is the wonderful fluf- club's championship tournamen fy potatoes that come steaming to the table with the tender round of beef. We never expect to taste the like again and Bob Houston and Angus Macunless we save enough shekels to pay our way once more to visit the Land of Hope and Glory. Let Scotland have her Haggis, Boston her baked beans. Virginia her fried chicken, Canada her dainty sandwiches. It is the roast beef and potatoes and Brussells sprouts that make the man.

DASTARDLY WORK

"Dastardly" is the best word that can be applied to the sabotaging of a train in the United States killing a ton. number of innecent passengers. It seems to have been a carefully planned mass murder.

In these days of speed it seems only too easy for a crazy man to cause a terrible tragedy. But, unfortunately, this job in Nevada does not look like the work of a crazy man. It was so carefully planned and prepared that grounds, last night's Senior League For Another it seems as if there must have been something more be- softball fixtures were postponed. hind it than a maniacal impulse.

ROOSEVELT'S POSITION

President Roosevelt has decided not to be a candidate at the presidential election next year and most of those who admire him will agree that it is better he should retire and let someone else carry on the work. He still has more than a year and a half to finish his term although the election will take place in November of next year.

It seems that the president is throwing his weight picture star, has essayed another ers, by a score of 16 to 8. with Vice-President Garner for the next presidential matrimonial venture.
