Negrin Asks Britain and France to Ask for Mediation to End Conflict—"Missing" Canadians Turn Up Safely at Frontier

TO PREVENT FURTHER BLOODSHED

LONDON, February 6: (CP)—The British and French governments are co-operating with a view to using joint efforts to stop needless bloodshed in Spain, it is reported in official circles. Assurances that Great Britain is ready to act with France as mediator in the Spanish conflict have been made. Unconfirmed reports said that the Spanish government sought to enlist Great Britain's services.

PERPIGNAN, France, February 6: (CP)— The Spanish government abandoned its defence of Catalonia yesterday. The loyalist army was in mass flight to France and Premier Negrin and a few of his followers were reported to be on their way to Valencia. After Negrin had refused to enter into a truce with the insurgents, the French government decided to
