Prince Rupert In 'Xmas Dress

The downtown business section of Prince Rupert is now in full Christmas dress for the final week before the big festive day a week more attractive than they are this Christmas. The scene was further enhanced through the activity of members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the week-end in Mrs. C. L. Handsome Donation Has Made Purchase of Instrument Possible for Local Detachment

A piano has been secured for the militia men of Prince Rupert at the Old Hospital through the courtesy! of Mrs. N. Beveridge, who donated. $50 toward its purchase, Mrs. Rob-1 ert McCarthy, who sold a good pi-is ane for the small price of $80, and George Dawes who interested himself in handling the deal. The balance of the money amounting t $30 is being raised by the men themselves from their canteen fund

Slight repairs are being made to the instrument and it is being removed to the hospital building at once where it will be very greatly pappreciated by the non-commissioned officers and men who will have the privilege of using it,
