Against Any Interference With Albania Independence

L'ONDON, April 4: (CP)-Great Britain is reported in informed quarters to have dropped a strong hint to Italy not to copy German expansionist tactics by marching into Albania. These quarters said that any Italian action in Albania affecting that country's independence would be a violation of the Anglo-Italian agreement.

In Rome a radio station announced that negotiations were under way for strengthening the 1927 defence alliance between Albania and Italy.
