GERMANY'S DANGER

Germany's danger today is not so much from Great Britain and France as from her dangerous ally, Russia. The history of the past few days shows clearly that treaties mean no more to Russia than they do to Germany. Promises are made simply to be broken. So we may look for the treaty with Germany to be broken any time it suits the convenience of either party to it.

SUPPORT FROM INDIA

The representative of India at present in London says that the support given to the Empire by his country is already much greater than it was at the time of the former war. Already there are native troops in service at a number of points including Egypt and Aden. He says that the whole country has denounced Hitlerism. One-third of the country is ruled by Indian princes, all of whom have given support of some kind to the Empire including native forces. Indian naval vessels are aiding in the patrol of the Indian Ocean.

In view of some of the stories heard in regard to the stand of India in the present conflict, this is reassuring.

THE COMING SEASON

In spite of the war news that is worrying most people, the season is well advancing toward the time when we shall celebrate an old - fashioned Christmas in Prince Rupert. In the meantime there seems to be no let-up in the preparations that are being made to remember friends and relatives as usual. Prince Rupert stores are filled with holiday goods of a most tempting nature and, in spite of the war, people seem in the humor to buy.

SPORT CHAT

Plans are understood to be under way for the promotion of intertown basketball games this season for the purpose of raising funds for the Red Cross. The Standard Oil basketball team, through its manager, Croft Brook, has offered its services and net proceeds of all games played this season. Negotiations have been under way and partially completed for the meeting of New Metlakatla and The Oilers at the most convenient date. Ketchikan has also expressed its willingness to stage the annual international series as usual this year.

The Exhibition Building, now being used by many juniors, seniors and intermediates, is at the disposal of the Oilers but it is feared that unless weather is ideal the fans would just as soon stay home and listen to the broadcasts than climb the hill to see the teams in action. The Armory, scene of triumph for the Oilers last season is now only open to those in the Militia and it seems that possibilities of games being held there this year will receive a dampening if not a decided setback. The authorities it is understood have already been approached with the offer of the boys to do their part in raising funds.

Whether or not there is any activity on the basketball front this season it certainly cannot be said the players didn't try. With a faster, more experienced and smarter team than last year Prince Rupert should give no ground to any outfit in the north. Practices are still being diligently carried out three times a week and by January the squad should be in tip-top shape and ready for action.

Anyone with the thought in mind of building a hall big enough for basketball should get in touch with the ball players and they'll slowly enough free labor to build another grand coulee. There has never been more enthusiasm for the game than this year following last season's fine schedule and it would be regrettable to let things drop back to a period of inactivity such as was experienced in 1936-37 when Prince Rupert lost the Northern B. C. Cup after holding it so long.

High School Hoop Winner

Defeated Convent By 40 to 16 Score Saturday Evening

Last Saturday evening another off the record basketball game was played in the Exhibition Hall with High School squashing the Convent 40 to 16. The High School displayed a nice brand of passing and hard checking, keeping the Convent scoreless in the last quarter. Scherk, Holkestad and McCouver worked well for High School while Clausen and Knutsen were the mainstay for the Convent.

Teams were as follows:

High School—Morin, Scherk 12, McCouver 10, Holkestad 10, Kihara 2, Bill.

Convent—Knutsen 6, Clausen 4, Tyssonich 4, Brown 2, Eby, Smith. D. Montesano was referee.
