Canadian Legion Red Cross Bridge

Successful Event Is Held By Women's Auxiliary

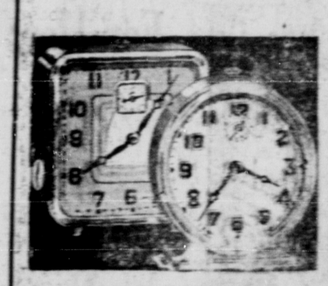

The Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion held the sixth of a series of successful bridges in aid of the Red Cross Fund at the week-end. Mrs. Robert Murray, president of the Auxiliary, was in general charge. Mrs. William Rothwell was convener of the affair, assisted by a committee of ladies.

The first prize, ladies' was won by Mrs. G. W. Johnstone, the second by Mrs. Dakin. J. McLeod won the first prize for men and George Howe second. The door prize was won by Mrs. N. Amoth.

Five thousand Prince Rupert people read the Daily News. It pays to let them know what you have to sell.

"Mikado" Greatly Enjoyed By Local Troops and Others

A capacity soldier audience with their friends gave the members of the Operatic Society enthusiastic appreciation of their efforts as, under the conductorship of Len Cripps, they entertained for an hour and a half with numbers from "The Mikado" at the Canadian Legion Hall last evening.

Responding to such an enthusiastic audience, the principals and chorus gave Conductor Cripps everything he asked for. Charles Balagno rendered full and almost symphonic support at the piano.

Mrs. Bernard Lundahl, Miss Betty Woods, Miss Florence Moore, Miss Mae Murray, with Len Cripps, Harold Ponder, Sergeant J. A. Teng and Hugo Kraupner, delighted the audience in the characterizations of their respective parts while the chorus work was responsive and reached tops in an inspiring finale.

Coffee and cakes were afterwards served by ladies of Hill 60 Chapter Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, bringing a happy closing to a very successful evening.

J. S. Wilson presided, giving the Operatic Society a hearty welcome and assuring the "troops" that the Legion is always standing by to their assistance.

Disregard Of God Brings Punishment

Local Pastor Sees This in State of Affairs in World Today

God is punishing the world today for its disregard of His word, Rev. H. G. Funston told his congregation at morning service in First Presbyterian Church yesterday. The world needed Christian action and workers more than ever today—action and not mere lip service. God's spirit at heart instead of outside show. Going to church on Sunday or on a few special days in the year, and there were many who did not even do that, was not sufficient. There should be Christian living and doing in the week-day business, social and home life. People should look within to see that they themselves were free of fault before they criticized others for their faults.

WEDDED ON SATURDAY

Miss Elizabeth Dickens Becomes Bride of Frank Gomez at Pretty Ceremony

A pretty but quiet wedding took place Saturday evening at the rectory of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Seal Cove, when Miss Elizabeth Dickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dickens, became the bride of Frank Gomez, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gomez.

The bride wore baby blue georgette with large picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Given in marriage by her father, she was attended as matron of honor by Mrs. Percy Bond whose costume was of pale green satin with white accessories and pink and white chrysanthemums. Sidney Dickens acted as groomsman.

Following the nuptial rites, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the guests being received by Mrs. Dickens sr. who wore old rose. Delicious buffet refreshments were served and the bride cut a handsome three-tier wedding cake. A toast to the bride was proposed by the groomsman and responded to by the groom.

Dancing was enjoyed until the early hours of the morning with music by Jack Bond, Bobby Townsend and Bobby Reid.

The couple, who will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends, will reside on Eighth Avenue East.

Celebrates Twenty-First Birthday

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Dawes' home on Fourth Avenue was the scene of a delightful birthday party. The occasion was Nansye 2Dawes' twenty-first birthday.

During the evening games were played. The winners at Chinese Checkers were the Misses Delphine Balagno, Norma Smith, Engina Christensen and Mrs. D. Healy.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served, the dainty table being centred with a pretty birthday cake.

The guest of honor received many beautiful gifts, one of which was a lovely silk umbrella presented by Honora Silversides on behalf of those present.

Besides the guest of honor those present were: the Mesdames H. Monkley, D. Healy, H. Davey, G. Grosvenor, J. Bulger, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dawes, the Misses Delphine Balagno, Honora Silversides, Engina and Margaret Christensen, Matilda Larson, Bea Grosvenor, Norma Smith, Kay O'Neill, Jean Krause, Master Edward Dawes and Miss Doreen Wilson.

The soldiers quartered at the old hospital are in great need of a piano. There are among the two hundred warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men quartered there a number of good pianists and singers but they have no instrument. It is possible that some local person has a piano that is not in use that he would be willing to donate or loan to the soldiers. This would not be a very great sacrifice for the men are sacrificing much more than one hundred dollars each in giving their services to their country. Anyone wishing to donate or loan kindly notify the Daily News and arrangements will be made to fetch the instrument. tf.
