WHO KEEPS THEM GOING

It is pointed out by the Chinese Bureau of Economic Research which is busy at Washington D.C. that eighty-five per cent of the sinews of war which are helping Japan suppress the Chinese comes from the democracies. Over half of the essential war materials are supplied by the United States. Very little of it comes from Germany or Italy as they are busy stocking up for themselves. The total purchases of war material in the United States last year reached the almost fabulous sum of one hundred and seventy million dollars. Great Britain supplies Japan with over sixty million dollars worth of metals, rubber, leather and ores. Japan gets the largest part of her oil, iron materials, metal working machinery, copper, aircraft and autos from the United States. Possibly Japan feels she can insult a country, that supplies only sixty million dollars worth of materials but it is not wise to insult a country that supplies three times that amount.

Britain and Russia

Negotiations with Russia do not seem to have made very much headway. Perhaps that is why Germany is still hurling insults at the British and threatening to move into Danzig. Speaking of the negotiations, Bruce Hutchison says:

"A lot of people seem to be surprised that the British and the Russians haven't got together yet. The only surprising thing is that they have gone as far as they have, and if they do manage to get together it will be one of the most remarkable feats of forgetting and forgiving in the history of diplomacy, to which these things come easy.

"It is only 20 years ago that a British army was trying to invade Russia to kill off the crazy Bolsheviki. It is only a few years ago that the British were raiding the Russian offices in London for treasonable papers. It is only in the last six months that the British government deigned to speak to the Russians at all. It is only in recent times that the British government wasn't prepared to let the Germans walk into the Ukraine and overrun Russia, and rather hoped they would. No wonder the Russians are coy.

"And, on the other hand, the British have good reason not to love the Russians. They don't forget that the Russians nearly cost the Allies the war. The Russians also were accused of fostering the world revolution in England, where their offices were raided. And it seems pretty clear from all the evidence that up to recent times the Russians were trying to make a deal with Hitler and it is certain that the real interests of the world revolution don't lie with the democracies, which are all capitalistic and thus ideological poison to Mr. Stalin.

"So you can see that to forget and forgive all that will take a little time. But it will probably be done because the spectacle of Hitler will make you forget and forgive anything. After one look at him, the Russians even prefer us British. And as we look at Hitler we are ready to forget the Russian revolution, the famine, the purge and our ancient belief that Communists don't bathe frequently enough."

POLED TWO HOME RUNS

Bill Dickey Does Some Lusty Bat Wielding For New York Yankees —Reds Slipping

NEW YORK, June 27: (CP)—Bill Dickey, catcher for the New York Yankees, had a good day Sunday when he poled out two home runs in the course of a double-header with the St. Louis Browns at the Polo Grounds. The lowly Browns won the opener seven to three while the Yanks took the nightcap 11 to 2.

In the National League the leadership of the Cincinnati Reds was reduced to three games over the St. Louis Cardinals when they lost two week-end games to the New York Giants, 7 to 2 on Saturday and 3 to 2 Sunday.

The teams in both leagues were yesterday shifting to new stands. The National League teams were all travelling to resume today as follows: Chicago at St. Louis; Philadelphia at New York; Pittsburg at Cincinnati; Brooklyn at Boston. Yesterday's games in the American League resulted as follows:

New York, 3; Philadelphia, 2.
Detroit 11; Cleveland, 2.
Boston, 3; Washington, 0.
St. Louis opens at Chicago today.

Detroit, as a result of the win over Cleveland, went into third place ahead of the Indians.

SOFTBALL PLAY-OFFS

Dominion Day Cup First Round Drew Out Good-Sized Crowd Last Evening

The Dominion Day Cup softball playdowns drew out a large crowd last evening to the Gyro Ball Park on McBride Street and some interesting play was turned in for the spectators. Grotto won over Moose 11 to 10 in a game which was just as close as the score would indicate. Three Two came from behind to defeat Acropolis 11 to 8. The net result is that Three Two goes into the final on Dominion Day, meeting the winners of Grotto and Lipsett's who play tonight.

The Moose were leading in the sixth inning in the game with Grotto last night and then the tobacconists came up from behind to score four runs and move into the lead. There was an exciting finish with each side scoring one run in the seventh. Both teams had their regular players out.

Much to the discomfiture of Three Two, Acropolis was leading 3 to 6 as the sixth stanza commenced. Then Three Two made three runs in the sixth and sewed it up in the seventh with a couple more. For Acropolis, with their new pitcher, William Amadio, it was the best game of the season. Only an unfortunate error by the centre fielder who dropped the ball in the sixth with two down and two on gave the victory to Three Two. Despite the tough break, the hill boys showed themselves, as always, real sportsmen.

Johnny Comadina did a good job of umpiring.

Line-ups:

Grotto — Howe, Gillis, Smith, Simonsen, Morgan, Santerbane, Yager (pitcher), Ratchford, Montesano.

Moose — Speer, D. Cameron, Vance, J. Schroeder (pitcher), D. Strachan, N. Cameron, Pierce, Franks, F. Schroeder.

Acropolis — William Amadio (pitcher), E. Clark, H. Attree, L. Gillies, O. Santerbane, O'Neill Bird, S. Schaeffer, S. Mentenko.

Three Two — Letourneau, Irish, Smith, Mah, Dominato, Murray, Arney, Campbell, Pallant (pitcher).

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Grotto	1	0	3	1	1	4	1	—11
Moose	1	3	0	0	5	0	1	—10
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Acropolis	0	1	3	4	0	0	0	— 8
Three Two	0	5	1	0	0	3	2	—11
