PREPARING FOR M'BRIDE'S VISIT.

Premier McBride and the other representative of the Two-Man government are expected to reach here on their stumping campaign the week after next, and there was a rumor around town today that the Conservatives were circulating a petition requesting the Premier to pledge himself to an early sale of the government lots in this townsite. It could not be learned which of the two Conservative organizations was doing this, nor could a copy of any such petition be run down. So possibly it is the first of a series of political canards.

The idea, however, has a good deal to recommend it, for the reason that it would be a movement bound from its inception to meet with success. Mr. McBride's reply is a safe bet. He would solemnly and very respectfully take the matter under advisement and give the petitioners an answer at the earliest possible date. That date would be just before election, when the "promise" would be published in large type. If this should really happen The News would also use large type. It would print this "promise" at the head of a long list of such "promises" of the Two-Man government as to the early completion of the government dock.

The rumor run yesterday that the petitioners were to present at the same time an ultimatum: That if the petition was not favorably answered the Conservatives of the city would withdraw their support of the McBride government. It may or may not be within the ethics of party politics to hold up a premier with a loaded gun of this description, but to us it is another evidence that the rumor has no foundation in fact. Yet, the Progressives are really progressive, and might take such a step, as they have taken several, because the question at issue is a supreme matter of public polity. But the old Conservative party—never in your life; forget it. The policy engraved in their heart of hearts is: "Suck the pap hard and silently; never breathe a whisper."

REGULAR POLICE JUDGE WILL SOON BE NEEDED.

With the growth of the city, which is undoubtedly going to break into a rapid gait this summer, there will arise a necessity for a police judge who can devote at least his mornings to the work without hunting for other jobs and leaving police court cases to await the convenience of such other jobs. During the past week, for instance, a number of cases were adjourned from day to day because the magistrate had been engaged as one of the arbitrators in the Tomlinson Right-of-Way case. It was a serious inconvenience and considerable unnecessary expense for the men charged with crimes or misdemeanors to attend court, pay the fees of their lawyers and the expense of a number of witnesses on both sides from day to day.

With the Grand Trunk Pacific, Canadian Northern, Canadian Pacific and Great Northern racing to see which can blow in the greatest number of simoleons in British Columbia during the coming season, this province, as a centre of activity, should have an anthill looking like an Indian cemetery.—Fort George Tribune.

"Potatoes from Ireland, butter from New Zealand, eggs from Kansas. What is Canada coming to as an agricultural country when this once great nation of farmers has to look for her source of supplies in Irish potato patches, New Zealand churns and Kansas hen houses?" asks the Toronto Telegram. The answer is that Canada is coming to believe that the abolition of taxes on foodstuffs is becoming absolutely necessary, and that reciprocity is good spring medicine.

The Winnipeg Free Press says: "The party organ which is a combination of boot-licker, whitewasher and general chore-boy for the politicians is pretty nearly extinct, but there are some survivals which are still in a good state of preservation."

...to Do So...

The man who is able to buy any kind of printing is able to buy good printing. If he uses anything else it indicates to people who see it that he doesn't care.

Most people would prefer a man's general character and personality to be in keeping with his printing—so its disastrous not to care about your printing

NEW RALLYING SONG

Democrats of Missouri Adopt an Official Campaign Song.

Wunst me 'n Lem Briggs 'n ol' Bill Brown
Tuk a load of dawn to town,
An' ol' Jim-dawg, the onry cuss,
He jes' nachelly follered us.

CHORUS.
Every time I come to town
The boys keep kickin' my dawg aroun';
Makes no difference if he is a houn',
They gotta quit kickin' my dawg aroun'.

As we driv' past Sam Johnson's store
Passel o' yaps kem out th' door;
When Jim, he stops to smell a box,
They shied at him a bunch o' rocks.

They tied a tin can to his tail
An' run him apast the county jail,
'N' that plumb nachelly makes me sore,
'N' Lem he cussed 'n' ol' Bill he swore.

Me 'n Lem Briggs 'n' ol' Bill Brown
We lost no time in ajumpin' down,
An' we wiped them ducks up on th' groun',
Fer kickin' my ol' dawg aroun'.

Folks say a dawg kaint hold no grudge,
But wunst when I got too much budge
Them town ducks tried to do me up,
But they didn't count on ol' Jim-pup.

Jim seed his duty thar an' then,
An' he lit into them gentlemen,
An' he shore mused up the cote-house square
With rags 'n' meat 'n' hide 'n' hair.

WEPT SALT TEARS
Sad Plight of a Noted Traveler Up River Recently.

Among recent arrivals at Van Arsdol from the interior was Tom Hall of Rithet & Co., Victoria, who walked in from the end of track in four hours, including stop at Kitselas for refreshments, a record for this winter. This does not include the time spent by Mr. Hall in weeping bitter, salty tears when the conductor of the work train put him off in the middle of the right-of-way and the night. Aforesaid tears washed out a culvert and ditched an engine. Reputable bystanders affirm that Tommy was heard thereupon to mutter: "R-r-r-r-venge" with seventeen "rs."
