NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1939.

PROVINCIAL

PRICE: 5 CENTS

Montreal CIRCES nell Majestles

Principal Metropolis Of Canada Opens Its Arms To King

Tremendous Reception Accorded as Monarchs Arrive After Visit at Quebec-Are Leaving for Ottawa Tonight

MONTREAL, May 18: (CP)-The chief metropolis of the senior British Dominion this afternoon gave King George VI., first reigning British monarch to cross the Atlantic and visit this Dominion, and his Queen Elizabeth the most enthusiastic welcome it could provide. As Their Majesties stepped from their special train for the third stop of the royal Canadian tour, there was a deafening roar of thunderous shouting from the cheers of thousands of men, women and children that could not be outdong by the crescendo of marine whistles. church bells and the even roar of low flying airplanes. The royal, party arrived exactly on schedule. Tonight the King and Queen leave; at 10 o'clock for Ottawa where they, are due at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for a two-day visit.

The magnificent reception here! was tendered predominantly by French Canadians. A colorful array greeted the monarchs as they alighted from their train to a carpeted nathway leading to a dais The King and Queen were greeted by spontaneous cheers, flag-waving singing and band playing, punctuated by a twenty-one gun saiute.

Spectators had hald as high as $30 for bleacher seats to witness the royal reception.

On the way here this morning. the royal party spent fifteen minutes at Three Rivers where a reception, fully typical of the enthusiasm which old French Canada is according all along the way, was given. Seventy-five thousand persons, twice the population of Three Rivers, gathered in the early hours to see Their Majesties. The first stopping place of the train since leaving Quebec, Three Rivers was gaily decorated for a fifteen-minute

Halibut Sales

Summary

American-None. Canadian- 22,000 pounds, 6.3c and 5c to 7.6c and 6c.

Canadian Essential, 9,000, Cold Storage, 7.6c and 5c.

Salaida, 10,500, Atlin, 7c and 5c. Lucky Star, 2,500, Cold Storage, 6.3c and 5c.

Irish Republican Army Suspect Is Traced To Coast

LOS ANGELES, May 18:- The long arm of Scotland Yard has reached to Southern California m the investigation of activities of the Irish Republican Army held responsible for recent bombings and other incidents in the British Isles. A suspect was traced here and is now believed to have headed towards Washington.

There not being more than thirty persons present, no definite action was taken last night by a public meeting in the Eagles' Hall which had been called to discuss certain phases of regulations imposed under the new civic zoning bylaw inlot line and the $3500 minimum. are reported to have withdrawn The meeting lasted about an hour to nearby warships after a comand a half and there was a general discussion. George B. Casey presided and A. Wallen acted as secre-

MONEY RECOVERED

Having found the hiding place where Colin McKenzie secreted $800 following hold-up of the general store at Anyox two weeks ago, the provincial police boat P.L.M. 8 is due back in port this afternoon. Constable D. W. Taylor is in charge of the successful search party which was accompanied by McKenzie who led the officers to his cache.

WEDGE APPEAL ADJOURNED

After two days of hearing argument point by point on varios questions involved including jurisdiction and constitutionality, the appeal of Capt. Dan Wedge of the halibut boat Bayview against a conviction by Stipendiary Magistrate Andrew Thompson under the International Fisheries Commission regulations and fine of $100 together with confiscation of 2500 pounds of halibut was today adjounred in Supreme Court for three weeks. In the mean-· time counsel will present to Mr. Justice A. I. Fisher additional authorities with respect to the points at issue. J. T. Harvey is acting in the case for the appellant and E. F. Jones for the Dominion government.

PUPILS GOING SOUTH

High School pupils from this city and district going to Vancouver as guests of the school board of that city in connection with the King's visit will sai! tonight on the Prince George for the south. They are Emily Christopher, Nora Thomas, Edward Lambe and Spencer Davies Patricia Clark, Philip Kenney of the Crown an exceptional oppor-, Spencer Davies will actually leave tomorrow evening via rail.

SUGGESTIONS MODIFIED

LONDON-Great Britain has so modified her suggestions for Russian collaboration in the European anti-aggression front that it would not surprise observers here if eventually she accepted the original Soviet plan for a triple military alli-

JAPANESE WITHDRAW

SHANGHAI-All but a few of the Japanese marines who were landed last week at Kulangsu, lomatic force by Great Britain, and a daughter. - Fresh southeast to southwest

HIS MAJESTY AND HIS DAUGHTERS

VICE-REGAL HEADS OF EACH PROVINCE WILL ADD DETAILS TO VISIT plants which will be set out before the arrival of the royal party will to

Lieutenant-Governors in Personal Talks With King and known to be among the queen's Palestine was generally quiet fol-Queen May Explain Regional Highlights

OTTAWA, May 18: (CP)-Each of Canada's nine lieutenant-governors will have personal chats with the King and Queen during the course of Their Majesties' been erected outside Outlook Cabin ment building at Jerusalem, tour, marking the stages of the royal party's progress which will carry the Royal Stand- general strike and the storming from coast to coast and return. Because of their informal ard while the King and Queen are of a government building in the of Prince Rupert; Betty Jones, nature these meetings will offer the chief representatives in residence.

Mary Anderson, Peter Jack and to the royal guests' panoramic im-William James of Stewart. pression of Canada and Canadians. Each of the lieutenant-governors is, by virtue of his career in public life, well equipped for his post as an interpreter of his province's industrial and economic importance and natural charms. Brief sketches of incumbents of the office from coast to coast follow:

Hon. E. L. Patenaude, lieutenantgovernor of Quebec, who met the King yesterday, is a veteran of provincial and federal politics, a lawwhose stately appearance and rich background fits ken at 5 a.m. today and covers the 30 dian Club here last night. Miss Japs Fish In

| Control of the Courtesy of addressing the Wollien's Canal dian Club here last night. Miss dian Club here last night. Miss Japs Fish In

| Control of the Courtesy of addressing the Wollien's Canal dian Club here last night. Miss dian Club her well into his public duties. He is hour period ending 5 p.m. tomorrow. 64 years old. Before his appoint- General Synopsis Pressure is fall- in which all women should be inment, Mr. Patenaude was promin- ing on the north coast where teresting themselves, individually Government Vessel Leaves Seattle 1908, he entered the federal scene is moderately warm. three foot space between walls and Amoy international settlement, in 1915 and later held various cab- Prince Rupert and Queen Charling in the positions. His favorite positions. His favorite positions.

France and the United States. | Hon. Albert Matthews of Ontario, winds, partly cloudy with showers and Kenneth Houghton of Smi- tunity of presenting the highlights is a leading Toronto investment, and Kenneth Houghton of Smi- tunity of presenting the highlights is a leading Tolollo Investment. Preservation Of Peace Should lyn Niedrick of Terrace and will be able to supply more detail mer vice-president of the League. of Nations Society of Canada, Mr. Matthews headed Canada's delegation to the League of Nations Economic Conference at Geneva in' 1927. He is 66. Close friends characterize him as "modest and always reluctant to enter political discus-(Continued on Page Five)

Margaret Rose, to a social

Weather Forecast

(Furnished through the courtesy of addressing the Women's Cana-

Elected to the Quebec Legislature in the interior of British Columbia i

RELEASING OF STAGNANT JASPER IS CAPITAL IS ADVOCATED ALL READY AS MEANS OF RECOVERY

Bitterly Assailed

LONDON, May 18: (CP)- The Night Of Disorder

Colonial Secretary Malcolm Mac-

Jewish city of Tel Aviv.

Be Objective Of Every Woman,

King and Queen Will Occupy Out-Look Cabin at Mountain Resort

JASPER PARK. May 18 .- All is in readiness at this mountain resort in the Canadian Rockies for the forthcoming visit of Their Majestbe in gala attire and the royal visitors will be accorded a rousing welcome of lovalty from the residents

Three miles from the station and situated on the shares of sparkling Lac Beauvert is Jasher Park Lodge where Their Majesties will enjoy a short rest from their official tour EVERY BODY and their time will be absolutely their own to do as they wish, whether it be to ride, stroll, motor, play tennis or golf. The famous outlook cabin which will be occupied by the King and Queen has been completely reconditioned. The exterior of New British Plan For Palestine, selves unemployed. I believe that the cottage has been restained with cherry wood stain and oiled and the windows and doors have been painted in a contrasting shade of Brunswick Green. The woodwork been refinished in natural wood ined in a white paper yesterday standards by reducing or eliminaton the inside has been done over dining room and bedrooms have been re-done.

The silver glass and chinaware is all in readiness. There are various sets of china-the gold service. one in Limoges and an Italian tea

The cabin presents a striking apglorious view of mountain and lake. Numerous deer are around the stands have been made from stunted trunks of trees obtained in the Pocahontas district and are in keeping with the general rustic surroundings.

The grounds surrounding the cabin will be set out with flowering plants. Special care has been given to the selection of these plants and, among the ten thousand flowering the arrival of the royal party, will Donald told the House of Combe many of the varieties which are mons today that the situation in favorites. There will be an abund- lowing a night of disorders. ance of cut flowers of every des- number of incidents were listed cription for the decoration of the as marking the Jewish protests interior of the cabins.

A new fifty-foot flag pole has included the firing of a govern-1

Impressive Address on Economic Problems of Day Heard By Gyro Club—Co-Operative Movement is Discussed

"It would be better for business and the nation as a ies on June 1 and 2. The town will whole, I suggest, if the great excess of savings for which there is little or no demand were distributed to that large proportion of the population whose basic needs are unsatisfied," said George Dolson, secretary of the North Island Fishermen's Co-operative Association, in addressing the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday. "If that were done, I suggest, industry would throw off many of the shackles that now hold it im-RESENTEUL mobile. A tremendous increase in production and consumption would follow which would absorb a large proportion of those who find them-Giving Control To Arabs, Is by this one stroke we would have struck at the roots of one of the causes of our recurring business

"I believe we could make great in the interior of the cabin has government's proposal, as out-forward strides in raising living finish. Chinking between the logs for the future government of Pal- ing some of the examples of conin white. The bathrooms, of which stine by establishment of an in- ery hand. In the economic sense, there are five, have all been re- dependent Arab-Jewish state is a large fraction of our working decorated in pastel shades. All of assailed by Jewish leaders as set-manpower is engaged in digging the furnishings in the living room, ting up a territorial ghetto for holes and filling them up again to them. The Arab high command in the decided disadvantage of so-Palestine has also rejected the ciety as a whole. That condition gives work but it does not increase The white paper stated that the wealth.

objective of the government is "To sum up, it is my firm behe establishment within ten years lief that, if we could secure a defof an independent Palestine state initely more equitable distribution n such treaty relations with the of the annual production of wealth pearance with the large plate glass United Kingdom as will provide while at the same time reducing the observation windows in the living satisfaction for the commercial tremendous toll of wasted effort room and dining room forming the and strategic requirements of both and resources and assuming we use countries in future. Linking up to the full our technological knowlof Palestine with the anti-aggres- edge, we would have in large meascabin at all times. Rustic flower sion plan in Europe also is pro ure found the answer to those economic questions which vex us to-The Jews take bitter exception day."

> the rlan which is evidently de. Mr. Dolson was speaking on the signed to turn control of Palestine subject of "The Modern Economy over to the Arabs completely and and the Co-operative Movement." Jewish immigration there within The discourse of this young man five years and deprive the Jews who has not long been residing in of their long hoped for national Prince Rupert indicated that he is a deep student of economics possessing definite and well reasoned views which he is capable of expressing lucidly and with facile delivery. What he had to say was much appreciated by his listeners. President W. M. Watts was in the chair and, on behalf of the club members, made suitable acknowlagainst the British plan. These edgement to Mr. Dolson. W. D. Vance was a guest at the luncheon.

Mr. Dolson said in part:

Broad Situation

"Though the broad situation that faces us in the political and economic field should not be minimized, I do believe that, if men would learn to work together for the common good-to co-operate-most of those questions which loom large today would quickly disappear. And in this country, as in many others, Dean Bollert Says In Address I know we have the knowledge and the skill that would enable us to march forward.

"I think every woman should be in some peace organ-"But we are chained to the bars ization or an active member of some committee definitely of inactivity and futility because men have not learned to work tostanding for study of the cause of war and its eliminagether for the good of all-because tion," declared Miss M. L. Bollert, professor of English we devote a large part of our enand dean of women at the University of British Columbia ergies to fighting each other-to and president of the PanPacific Conference for Peace, in cancelling rather than assisting in the constructive efforts of our fel-

"We who are engaged in business are sometimes prone to point the finger at government to accuse it of inefficiency, of extravagarce, and (Continued on Page Two)

HOPE IS ABANDONED

Sweden flight.

ent in politics for two decades, showers have occurred while over and collectively, and urged her Today For Bristol Bay To listeners all to work with that of peace as one primary objective Alaska Again

Investigate

inet positions. His favorite pastime lotte Islands— Fresh to strong is flower-growing. Mr. Patenaude southeast to east winds, mostly seem an objective towards which ship Crane left today for the Bris- tually abandoned hope for the married Georgiana Denigar of La- cloudy and mild with showers. | they could accomplish little but, tol Bay area of western Alaska safety of Charles Backman, bined show of military and dip- prairie in 1900. They have a son West Coast of Vancouver Island as Confucius had said, "when to investigate reports of resumed Swedish flier, long overdue on Japanese fishing in territorial wat- an attempted North America to (Continued on Page Four)