Dinner and Lodge Meeting Last Night In Connection With Presence of E. L. Webber

bekah Lodges had a large turn-out to Vancouver. of members last evening at a supper held in the Boston Cafe, following which the members were addressed by E. L. Webber of Vancouver who is Grand Secretary of the order in British Columbia. He gave a very timely and informative address on Oddfellow activities and dealt with the excellent work the lodges are doing in all parts the province. After supper he visited the local lodge at the hall on Fourth Avenue and addressed good number of members.

Mr. Webber, who was last inthe ity in 1934, says he notices a very train for the east and will visit Hodges at Terrace, Smithers and
