NEW POPE ENTHRONED ON SUNDAY

Traditional Ceremony, Solemn and Impressive, Carried Out in Rome as Multitude Cheers

VATICAN CITY, March 13: (CP)—Traditional ceremony, solemn and impressive, marked the coronation and enthronement yesterday of the former Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli as Pope Pius XII, the 262nd Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. The actual ceremony of enthronement took place in the chapel of St. Peter before the altar of St. Gregory with Cardinals of the Church of Rome participating in the historic rites which were witnessed by a huge congregation of princes, prelates, diplomats, pilgrims and priests, the faithful and official representatives of the nations of the world. The Holy Father re-dedicated himself in simple mass to the priesthood in the great and powerful sphere as supreme pastor and vicar of Christ. He took "this bread as my body and this wine as my blood which shall be shed for you in the remission of sins." The actual coronation took place on the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica, being the first of doors coronation in almost a century.

There were colorful scenes in connection with the coronation, including the procession of Cardinals in their flowing capes of scarlet, Swiss, papal and noble guards played a prominent part. The usual pure white throne was used to seat the Pontiff at the mass.

Wave on wave of cheers from a festive assemblage estimated at 250,000 or more of the faithful which thronged St. Peter's Square mingled with the pealing of the bells of St. Peter's and the chanting of the officiants and the cathedral choir. The multitude, which had expressed its adoration and reverence, received the blessing of the new Pontiff.

SHIP WAS RELEASED

British Blockade Runner Not Held Long By Spanish Insurgents

LONDON, March 13: (CP)—The British freighter Stangate, seized at the week-end in the insurgents' new blockade of the Spanish republican coast, was freed after two British destroyers sped to her aid. The admiralty announced that there had been no trouble with no shots fired.

According to reports from Madrid, the new peace-making defence council of General Hoesa Miaja was hoping to completely put down communist revolting over the week-end.

SOVIET AND REICH NOT UNFRIENDLY

Stalin's Attitude Almost Indicates Rapprochement — Perceives Strategy To Start War

MOSCOW, March 13: (CP)—The emphasis placed by Joseph Stalin's speech Saturday on the lack of any genuine basis for war between Germany and Russia sounded to foreign observers almost like a rapprochement between the two countries.

Stalin declared that Great Britain, France and United States had ceased to resist world aggression in the hope that it would lead to a ruinous war against Soviet Russia.

The anti-comintern pact Stalin felt was aimed more against the communist internationale than Soviet Russia.

Stalin denounced the Italian conquest of Ethiopia, the German coup in Czechoslovakia and the Japanese invasion of China.

TRIED AND APPROVED

LONDON, March 13: (CP)—Two-water grog (two parts water, on rum) in the British Navy instead of the former three-water variety met the men's approval and will be continued, the Admiralty announced.

Thirty-seven nations sent ambassadors or ministers to the Vatican recognizing the pope as a sovereign, Great Britain in 1933 instructed the fleet that he is entitled to a sovereign's salute of 21 guns.

The pope's great responsibilities are shared by a sort of cabinet—the 12 Sacred Congregations, which are standing committees. He is the head of the church's judicial system. His little nation has its own coinage and postage stamps.

In addition to the armies of clergymen, agents for the propagation of the Catholic Faith in all parts of the earth, there are thousands of educational, fraternal, social and recreational groups throughout the world. In some countries there is also a political expression in Catholic parties.

And the hub of all this world-wide whirl of activity in one man—His Holiness, the Bishop of Rome, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church.

New Policy
The appointment of 62-year-old Cardinal Luigi Maglioni, regarded as sympathetic to the democratic rather than to the dictatorship nations, is accepted as another indication of a rejuvenated and liberal foreign policy to be instituted under the new Pope Pius XII.

SOCIALIST MEMBER IN TALK HERE

Social Problems Main Burden Of Two-Hour Discourse by E. E. Winch M. L. A.

The necessity of dealing in a scientific manner with the problems of mental illness and criminal tendency which he declared had been increasing in an alarming manner in British Columbia, owing in a large measure to economic causes, was stressed by E. E. Winch, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation Member of the Legislature Assembly for Burnaby, in addressing a public meeting which filled the Oddfellows' Hall last night. While there was urgent and immediate need for reform of appalling conditions existing in penal institutions and mental hospitals of the province, social problems of the country could not and would not be permanently solved until economic conditions which they reflected were changed, declared the Socialist legislator. The government had the resources to deal adequately with such matters as unemployment, health insurance if it had the will. One heard much talk of natural resources but these would not be much use if deterioration of the human resource, mentally, morally and physically, was allowed to continue as it had been doing. More credit to the name of Premier Pattullo would have been a much-needed psychopathic hospital in this province than the bridge across the Fraser River, Mr. Winch felt.

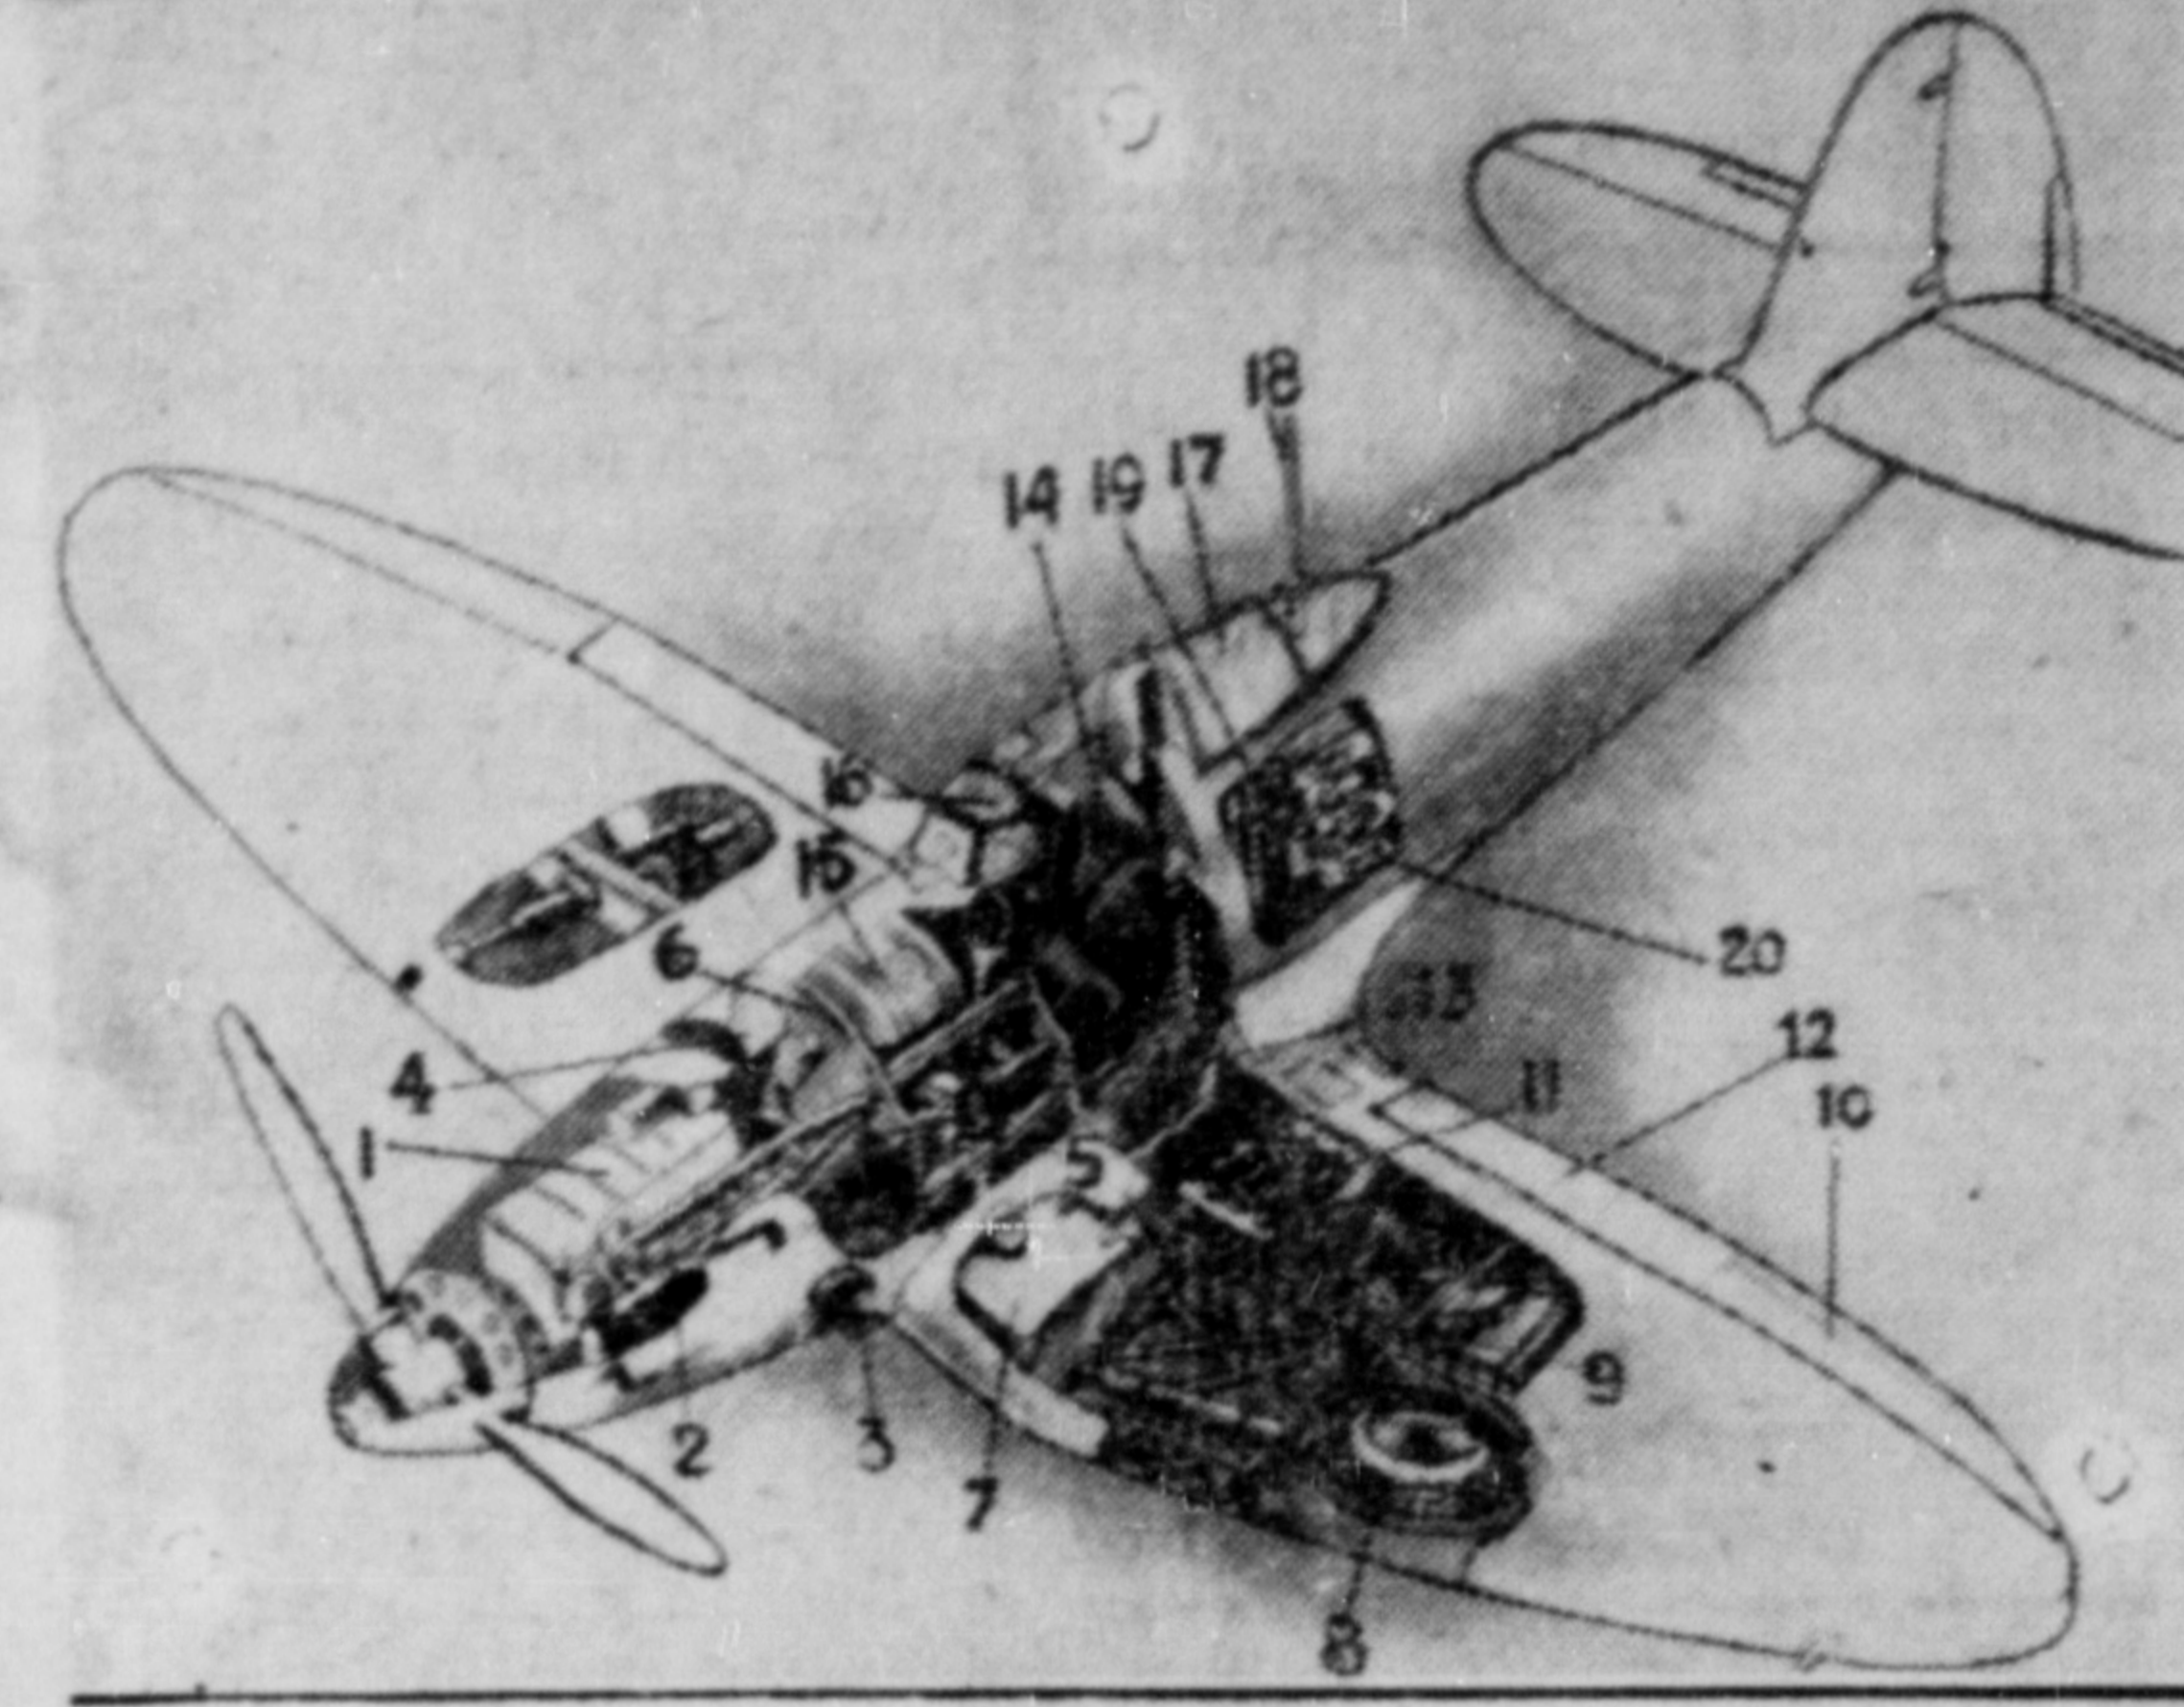

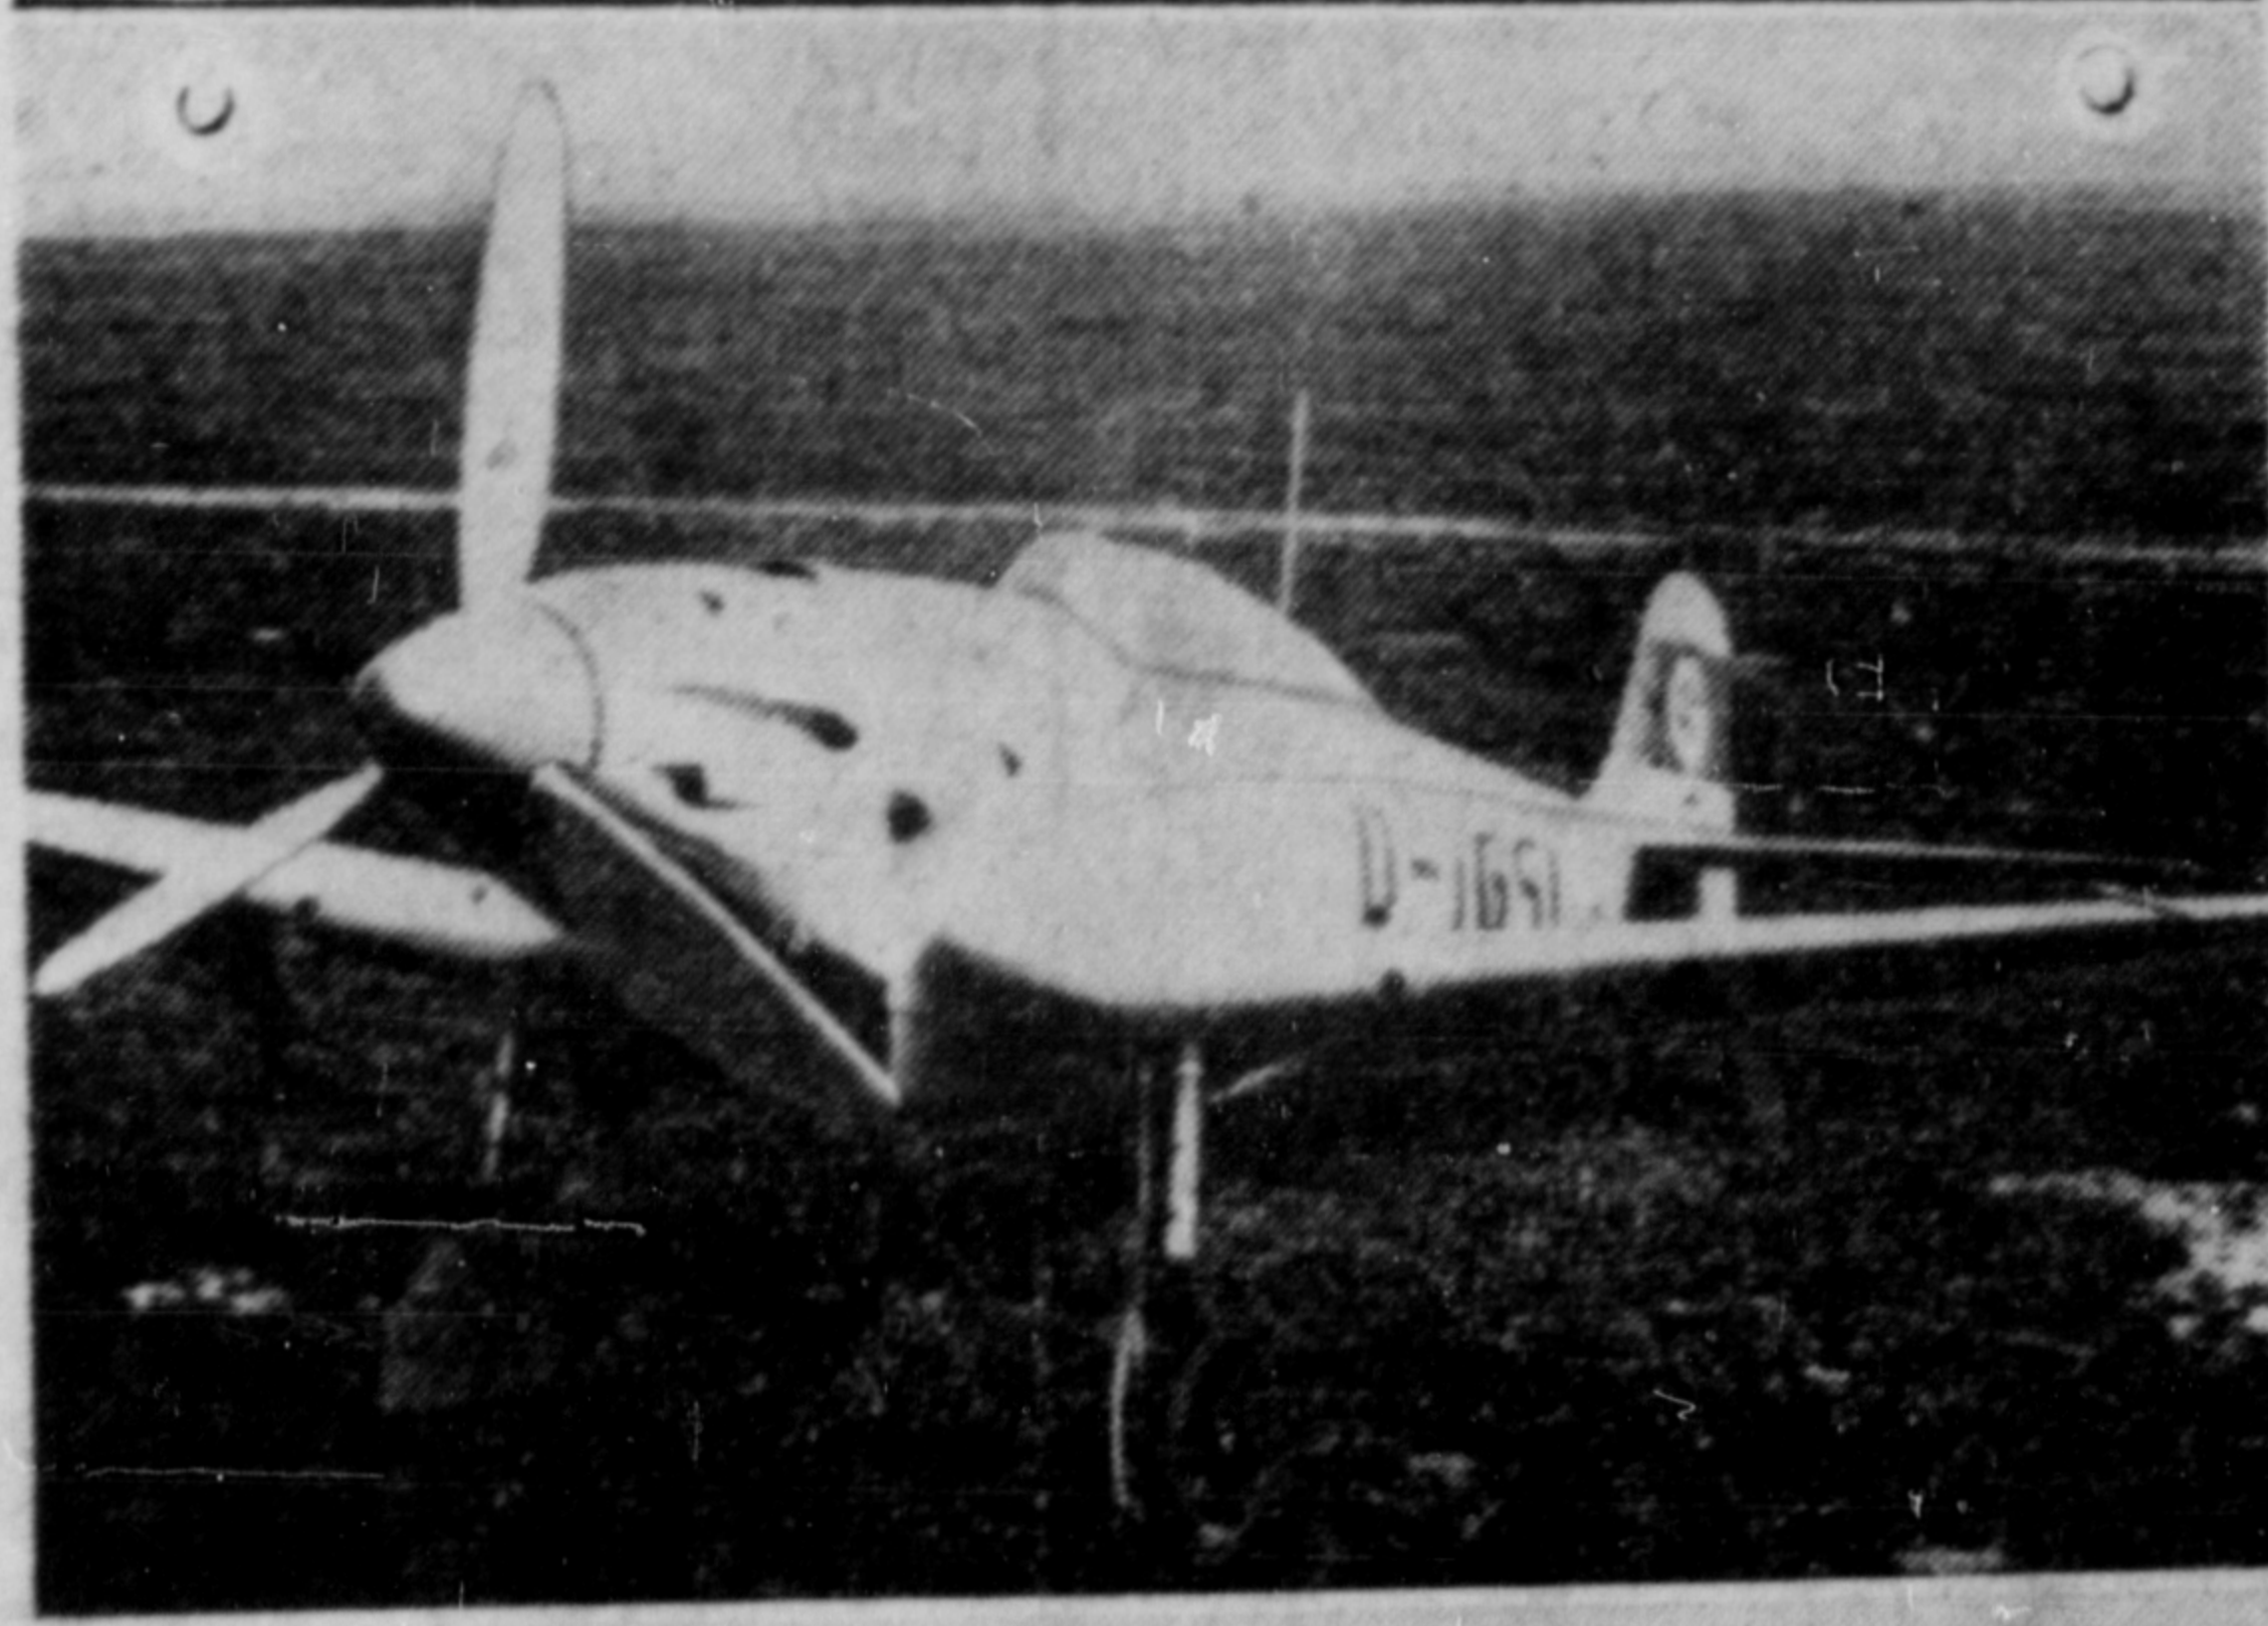

The nervously energetic member for Burnaby refrained almost entirely from personal criticism but held the Legislature as a body, one of which he was, as being responsible for things continuing as at present. He spoke for over two hours, largely on social conditions in the description of which he frequently made use of the word "appalling" and used charts and graphs prepared by himself on the basis of official government reports to illustrate his points. He also had a mass of files and documents.

James S. Black occupied the chair.

Mr. Winch was critical of the manner in which business was handled in the Legislature. He deplored the time which was wasted in useless debate which resulted in no action being taken on vital questions and the manner in which legislation of real importance was rushed through without adequate consideration while problems of real importance to the well-being of the people were allowed to die on the order paper. It was no wonder that measures passed by the Legislature were invalidated by the courts and, in passing, Mr. Winch referred to what appeared to him the incongruity of a single member of the Legislature, who might or might not have been defeated in an election being placed in a position where he was able to undo the work of the representatives of the people who were elected for the express work of making the laws.

Mr. Winch referred briefly to some of the measures which had been passed at the last session of the Legislature including the Public Utilities Act, which he said contained great possibilities for good if properly administered although he questioned if the people would derive much benefit since it had been approved by the B. C. Electric; the credit union act, of which the people would undoubtedly avail themselves, and the redistribution bill, of which he had no complaint to make. He told of the legislation in connection with which the C. C. F. had been accepted.

REICH'S NEWEST BID FOR AIR SUPREMACY

With the nations of Europe racing for supremacy in the air, the development by Germany of this new pursuit aeroplane, the HE112, places her a step ahead of her rivals, according to German experts. The craft is built for speed, being capable of better than 300 miles an hour, although the single motor boasts but 685 horsepower. The aeroplane is armed with two machine-guns and 6-10-kilogram splinter bombs. At top is a view of the aeroplane on the ground. Below, a photo-diagram, showing detailed construction. (1) Motor. (2) Motor-carriage. (3) Blow-out. (4) Intake valve for compressor. (5) Machine-guns on each side. (6) Safety wall. (7) Wing tank. (8) Landing gear folded back. (9) Cannon on each wing. (10) Crossbar. (18) Mast for antenna. (19) Telephone and radio compartment. (20) Mechanical pneumatic control of guns.

NEW ACT FAVORED

Conservatives and C. C. F. Join In Approval Federal Government Measure To Limit Defence Contract Profits

OTTAWA, March 13: (CP)—Conservative and Co-operative Commonwealth Federation speakers in Parliament at the week-end expressed unqualified approval of a bill of Hon. Ian Mackenzie, minister of national defence, to control defence contract profits by creation of a purchasing board which would limit profits on contracts not awarded by public tender to five percent on capital employed. The only qualifications, the speakers for these parties indicated, would depend upon the carrying out of the scheme as outlined. There was only one voice of opposition to the bill, J. F. Pollot, Liberal member for Teniscouta, who believed that contracts should be handled direct by the minister of national defence and his department.

Called home from Zeballos owing to the serious illness of his father, J. Fred Ritchie jr. arrived at the end of the week from the south and expects to remain here permanently. Many friends will be gratified to learn that there is a very marked improvement in the condition of Mr. Ritchie sr. who is at present at patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

HITLER TO MAKE MOVE ONCE MORE

Feeling Still Runs High In Slovakia, It Is Reported

Slovak Premier Meets Dictator

Intervention Said To Be Decided Upon—Great Britain May Not Be Interested

BERLIN, March 13:—Official Germany still appears to be "much annoyed" at the action of the Czechoslovakian government against the autonomous territory of Slovakia. Feeling still runs high in Slovakia, it is said, against the Czech control.

Chancellor Hitler today received the deposed Slovak Premier Tiso for an extended conference as acknowledgement was officially made that Germany would make some sort of an intervention in the Czechoslovak situation.

The mildest form of intervention would be diplomatic representations but the possibility of "strong action if necessary" was also mentioned at the Foreign Office.

Meanwhile at Prague official headquarters reported that the Czechoslovak government had decided to protest to Germany against the activities of the German minority within Czechoslovakia and of the Vienna radio station.

Great Britain has made no binding guarantee of Czechoslovakian frontiers as suggested at the time of the Munich settlement. It is learned officially. Even if the British government took the view of a "moral guarantee" in effect it would be concerned with unprovoked aggression against Czechoslovakia and not secession of one of its component parts.

TWO MINERS LOSE LIVES

Rockburst Proves Fatal to Young Married Man At Kirkland Lake Saturday Night

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont., March 13: (CP)—Michael Harrington, aged 28, and George Braaten, also 28, both married, were killed Saturday night in a rockburst in the Lakeshore mine here. Two others escaped after being entombed for four hours.
