WHERE IS THE AXIS?

Where is the Anti-Comintern Axis of which so much was heard only a few months ago? It is gone and with it the former orientation of European powers. The Communists were the people who shouted loudest for the participation of Great Britain and France against the dictatorship in Spain. Now we wonder what they think. There were some well-meaning people who thought Great Britain should take part in the civil war. The evils of a dictatorship were shouted in the streets. Now we see the union of two of the greatest dictatorships planning to dismember Poland and threatening every country opposed to them. It is not a pleasant picture.

MANY ANGLES

It is still difficult for Canadians to realize just where they stand in relation to the war. Until recently Japan was looked upon as a likely foe and she might be yet judging by a recent report in regard to the situation at Shanghai. The treaty with Russia also seems to indicate an Oriental line-up of a somewhat threatening character.

Newspapers in Germany, it is reported, seemed to be preparing their readers for Russia participating in the dividing up of Poland, leaving a buffer state between Germany and Russia.

So far the advance on the western front has been rather surprising. The French armies have overrun a large territory giving Germany the first taste of war in her own country. This campaign has shown that Germany is not so formidable as was expected. She can be beaten. Even in Poland this has been suggested.

Italy seems to have settled down to the idea of being a neutral nation. Her ships are engaging in commerce in all the seas and, as long as they are away from home, we may be sure she will not take any part on either side, particularly on the side of Germany.

The "incident" between China and Japan seems to have faded out of the picture so far as the news is concerned. Yet it may flare up at any time. Evidently the Chinese armies are trying to wear down the invaders.

It is too early yet to comment on the entry of Russia into Poland to Poland. It is possible that it may not mean much or it may mean a great deal. Within a few days we shall possibly know more about the intentions of the various interested parties.

McCLYMONT IS WINNER

Took Pair of Junior League Games From Fraser Street Yesterday

McClymont Park was the winner of two more games played yesterday in the Junior Baseball League with Fraser Street. The score of the first game was 9 to 8 and the second 6 to 1.

In the first game Fraser Street was ahead until the fourth inning after which McClymont Park came up from behind to win in spite of Fraser Street's good hitting.

The second game was all in favor of McClymont from start to finish, Fraser Street weakening in its hitting.

Next week a series of games for the city championships will be started. Both teams are in fine fettle and rearing for action. Mike Pustak will be umpire.

Here are thumnail sketches of some of the players:

Fraser Street

Arney— Effective moundsman whose hitting average is high.

Pavlikis—Catcher who lives up to the reputation that all Greeks are athletes.

Bill Long—First baseman and good catcher.

Stan Scherk—Shortstop, considered one of the best.

Bob Long—Second baseman with good batting average.

Bobby Vuckovich— Third baseman, commonly known at the "tortoise," has a good batting average.

Fred Barber—Right fielder, a newcomer who looks good.

K. Killas— Centrefielder and a good one.

P. Postuk— Left fielder, a little young but may develop into a good hitter.

McClymont Park

A. Bill—Who left Fraser Street on a misunderstanding, a good catcher.

Zbura—Catcher, with good batting average.

MacDonald—Moundsman, should be good for plenty of action.

B. Scherk—Back on first base after missing a few games.

Astoria— Second baseman and good fielder.

Simundsen—Short stop, good hitter and fielder.

Santerbane—Third base who has good catching and hitting average.

Oland—Outfielder, another newcomer who looks good.

Keays—Outfielder, should also be effective.

Douglas Ritchie, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McLachlan of this city, passed through on the Princess Louise Saturday afternoon enroute to Vancouver whence he will proceed to Edmonton to enter the University of Alberta. He has been spending the summer at Whitehorse.

Galento-Nova Fight Not So Hot In Money

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—In view of the disappointing gate of the Galento-Nova fight at Philadelphia Friday night, Manager Mike Jacobs says he will not permit Tony Galento to fight outside of New York again. Promoter Joe Jacobs says that a permit will not be granted for Galento to fight in New York.

The gate Friday night amounted to a mere $69,896. Galento and Nova each received $14,163.

SPORT CHAT

Stan Horne came from behind to win his third straight Canadian Professional Golfers' championship at Kingston a year ago last Thursday. Two strokes behind at the start of the day's play, the young Ottawa pro beat out Toronto's Bob Gray by a single stroke, finishing the 72-hole test with a total of 284.

Pancho Villa, Filipino boxer, knocked out Johnny Buff, flyweight champion of the world, at New York 17 years ago Friday night. Subsequently Villa, after defeating Jimmy Wilde, the English champion, became known as the world flyweight boxing champion, although Frankie Genaro, who had outpointed the Asiatic in 1925, retained the American title. Villa died in July, 1925.

Montreal Canadians, oldest team in professional hockey, was sold to Ernest Savard, owner of the Montreal Royals of the International Baseball League, for a reported price of $200,000 four years ago Saturday. The sale broke up a 15-year partnership between Leo Dandurand and Joe Cattarinich, former owners of the National Hockey Hockey League entry.
