CORSETS OR NOT?

New York Writer Finds People For And Against

By JOAN DURHAM
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 18: (CP)— To corset or not to corset has become the question before the fashion world. And it looks as if we, the women, might get ourselves worked up as we did when Irene Castle bobbed her hair.

The last time we women went in for whalebones and piano wire lacings, the doctors had a lot to say about it. How do they react today?

"Big women with lots of fat around the waist," said one doctor "may be able to stand slightly tighter waists. But little women who are already quite small will suffer seriously if they lace themselves too tightly."

What do women think about corsets?

"Women who take part in sports have good muscles and don't need them," says Helen Wills Moody, the tennis star. "Tennis is particularly good for the waist, anyway. Women who play a lot of tennis have very small waists, you'll notice."

Says Jean Spadea, designer of smart mannequins: "Indeed I am going to wear one of the new corsets. This new silhouette is a much more natural one for women than those awful hips we've been trying to get. I can't see how we'll be any more unhealthy if we pull our waists in a little."

Then there's the office girl. For instance, Ray Hanger, Virginia born young woman who directs activities of New York's largest news photograph library.

"Never!" she exploded. "Can't you imagine me all laced up, stooping over the cabinets getting out pictures of Hitler and Stalin and Chamberlain and Roosevelt? I'd be a pretty sight, now, wouldn't I?"

Outlook On Life Is Discussed By United Pastor

Last evening in First United Church Rev. J. C. Jackson spoke on "Our Attitude Towards Life." He contrasted the outlook of Jacob in the Old Testament with that of Paul as given in the New. Jacob found "all things are against me." Paul found "All things work together for good to them that love the Lord." While one's temperament might color one's outlook on life, there were factors that could be controlled. People should learn to look up, not down; forward, not back; outwards, not inwards. The Christian's point of view was a long, wide view and, seeing things far ahead, then indeed was the Christian "more than conqueror." Mrs. R. G. Large was heard to much advantage in her rendering of the solo "O Let Me Hear Thy Loving Kindness."

In the morning Mr. Jackson gave the second in the series on the Book of Jonah. The Junior Choir sang the anthem "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

WOMEN TO COLORS

LONDON, Sept. 18: (CP)—Typists, factory hands and women of independent means have swelled the numbers of the Women's Land Army to 14,000 in the past few weeks. Mrs. Walter Elliott, wife of the Health Minister is chairman of the London committee.

DIRECTION FOR PEACE

Until It Comes To Hearts of Men, Nations Cannot Expect It, Says Local Pastor

"Until there is peace in the hearts of men, there cannot be peace among the nations," said Rev. H. G. Funston, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, yesterday in the course of his morning sermon. His subject was "The Christian Cure for Strife." Bickerings in families, churches and communities, fierce competition in business, the devil of selfishness and the curse of nationalism, all these were seen by the pastor as reflections of the attitude which engendered war. In no way could war be reconciled with Christianity. Between the last war and the present one had the church and Christians taken the leadership they should in the direction of peace? Was the way clear today? Was there distinction between impulse and duty, between passion and judgment?

The pastor believed too often was there misconception in regard to pacifism. The real pacifist was the person whose endeavour was to promote harmony that would eliminate conflict. There were Christians in all lands—Germany as well as Great Britain and Canada. If there was a strong enough feeling among the peoples of all nations against war, there could be no war. In the meantime, if the issue was clear that Christians must bear arms, then this must be done. Conversely, too, might be a duty to be considered. The world was waiting for leadership in the direction of true and lasting peace. Might Christians soon see the way and follow it, resolutely and courageously, even if it involved sacrifice, pain and even death.

Mrs. H. F. Pullen returned to the city on Saturday night's train from a trip to Smithers and other interior points.

DANCER TO BE COUNTESS

CARNARVON, Wales, Sept. 18: (CP)—Lord Carnarvon, sixth earl, is to marry Tilly Losch, a refugee Viennese dancer. His marriage to Catherine Wendell of New York was dissolved in 1936.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

September 18, 1914

There are rumors of peace in the European war. The Kaiser is reported to be ready to listen to an offer of peace through the Pope or President Wilson. German armies, beaten on all sides, are reported to be without food or ammunition along the Aisne River on the western front.

A successful concert was staged in the Westholme Theatre last night in aid of the British Red Cross Association. Judge F. McB. Young was chairman and the program included an overture by the Westholme Orchestra, selections by male voice choir, recitation by Mrs. Chisholm, tableaux by Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Hemmell, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Ward, Miss Thompson, Miss Curtin, Lionel Crippen, J. W. Nicholls, W. E. Fisher, L. Bullock-Webster and H. O. Crew, vocal solos by Mrs. William Millar, guitar solo by Mrs. Bryant, vocal solo, Meth Davies, Swedish dances by Mrs. Holmquist, Mrs. Johnston, Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Holmquist, vocal solo by Mrs. Jarvis McLeod and bivouac scene by Irish Fusiliers.

Efforts are being continued to salvage the steamer Prince Albert which is stranded outside Prince Rupert Harbor.

Peace Dealings For Three Weeks

Negotiations Between Russia and Japan Had Been on For Some Time, It is Revealed

MOSCOW, Sept. 18: (CP)— The armistice, which has been agreed upon between Russia and Japan in their border warfare between Sovietized outer Mongolia and Japanese - dominated Manchoukuo and which some diplomats believe may foreshadow a non-aggression pact, culminates negotiations which were started after Russia signed the non-aggression pact with Germany on August 24.

QUIETLY MARRIED

A quiet but interesting wedding took place at 9 o'clock Saturday night at the Manse of First Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. G. Funston officiating, when Miss Catherine Stewart McMeekin, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMeekin, was united in marriage to John Armstrong, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong. Only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting couples were in attendance at the ceremony.

The bride, who wore a navy blue suit with dubonnet accessories and corsage of carnations and roses, was attended, as bridesmaid, by Miss Lillian Croxford who wore a coral suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of carnations. The groomsman was David McMeekin.

A wedding dinner was held in the Boston Cafe for about forty invited guests after which a reception took place at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake which was duly cut by the bride. A toast to the bride was proposed by S. E. Parker and responded to by the groom.

The couple will reside in the city temporarily. They will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of numerous friends. The bride was born in Prince Rupert and has lived here all her life. The groom has lived here for several years with his family.

Boy Scouts Disorganized

Advent of War Has Hit Staff Of Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters Rather Heavily

The organization of scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters having been seriously disrupted through departure from the city and enlistments, the Prince Rupert Boy Scouts' Association is confronted with rather a large task of reorganization for the coming season. There was to have been a meeting of the Association last week but, owing to the general uncertainty of the situation, the meeting was deferred and may take place in the course of the next week or so.

MIDDLE AGES THERE

TENG YUEH, China, Sept. 18: (CP)—In this almost secret city of Yunnan province, Chinese women are still subjected to the age-old practice of binding feet. The city is three days' travel from the nearest road to the modern south.
