HOLIDAY PICTURES

"Boy Friend," With Jane Withers, and "Pacific Liner," With McLaglen and Morris

"Boy Friend," a comedy featuring the popular juvenile star, Jane Withers, and "Pacific Liner," a hectic drama of the high seas with Victor McLaglen and Chester Morris, comprise a double picture bill at the Capitol Theatre here tomorrow afternoon and evening.

"Boy Friend" shows Jane Withers in her first love affair. The plot consists of three stories. First is a juvenile love match. Second comes a police school and third is a crime melodrama. Jane and her boy friend, George Ernest, expose Douglas Fowley's loft robbing gang and inspire an exciting chase. Warren Hymer, as a rookie officer, contributes to the comedy of the picture which shows how police force candidates are trained, how loft robbers go about their trade, how un-1 der-cover operatives work and how a pair of kids make monkeys of ruthless criminals.

Two determined men are pitted against each other in a deadly struggle of brawn against brains in "Pacific Liner." Victor McLaglen is a two-fisted chief engineer and Chester Morris, a rugged ship's doctor in an ill-fated voyage from! Shanghai to San Francisco. They vie for the favor of a pretty nurse played by Wendy Barrie. Drama and suspense follow when an epiidemic breaks out and there is at smashing climax.

Harper's Bazaar says:

• Frilly blouses, petticoats, gloves, ruffles, collars most everything is white! WHITE IS RIGHT this season. But white things must be washed frequently and repeated washings turn them yellowish, unless Blue is added. A swish or two of Blue in the final rinsing water on wash day assures the sparkling snowy whiteness that fashion demands - and it costs only a cent or two a month!
