New York Starts Another Date for Flowers and So On

N7W YORK, Jan. 30: (CP)- The Mother-in-Law Association of New, York is getting started. This organization places the mater of husband or wife on an honored pedestal and has set February 7 as the day when flowers may be sent. The Day has been established with a legal flourish, the society's certificate being formally filed in the County Clerk's office.

There's one woman who is living up to the modern mother-in-law pattern. Nobody has ever heard Mrs. Roosevelt pointing out the faults of son-in-law or daughterin-law. Their marriages and even their divorces are their affairs, not hers, and she manages to be the cherished friend of even members of the family who are now outsid-

The other night when her two youngest sons and their wives took Mrs. Roosevelt out for a good time, it was to the season's most daring play they escorted her, apparently Chester Leask, Metlakatla; J.
