WINDSOR HOTEL CASE UP; CHARGE AGAINST WM. WRIGHT

CITY SOLICITOR PETERS SAYS HE MEANS TO PROVE STATUTORY OFFENSE AND ASK FOR CANCELLATION OF THIS LICENSE—OTHER HOTELS TO BE INVESTIGATED.

"That William Wright did unlawfully allow a prostitute named Marcelle to occupy a room, to-wit, room No. 23, in the Windsor Hotel for the purpose of carrying on her trade." So reads the amended charge against William Wright this morning.

City Solicitor Peters reads the act differently, arguing that the statutory offense must be proved against accused before the License Commissioners can act.

Magistrate Carss showed a disposition this morning to refer the whole matter to the Board of License Commissioners for investigation of the charge. He argued that this is in terms of the Municipal Clauses Act.

"This is not any spasmodic move to get after one man," added the City Solicitor. "The whole of these men are going to have their methods investigated to see how they conduct their businesses." The Wright case is adjourned until tomorrow.

TORIES BOLT AT OTTAWA

Split in House on Manitoba Boundary Question, an Amendment Declaring Proposed Settlement to Be Unfair and Unjust.

(Special to Daily News.) Ottawa, March 7.—In the debate on the Manitoba boundary question yesterday Sir Wilfrid Laurier mentioned the separate school question, but did not discuss it. He moved an amendment that the terms were unfair, unjust, etc. Five French Conservatives bolted and voted for the amendment because in the government bill no provision was made for separate schools in new territory. The amendment was defeated by thirty-eight majority.

5,000 Facts About Canada.

The 1912 edition of that popular and indispensable booklet, "5,000 Facts About Canada," compiled by Frank Yeigh, the widely known writer and lecturer, and author of "Through the Heart of Canada," is now out and is replete with new matter, including an outline map of Canada, a calendar and the new census figures. In compact form is found a wealth of facts and figures of the Dominion that will prove a revelation of our natural resources and growth. The mass of information, gathered with infinite pains, should be in the hands of every intelligent Canadian, and the wide sale and popularity of the publication is easily understood. Copies may be had for 25 cents from the Canadian Facts Publishing Company, 667 Spadina avenue, Toronto.

CONSERVATIVES UNITED---NITT

But not without some discussion. Considerable high feeling was exhibited at the acts of the old officers—Fred Ritchie, Ed. Clarke and H. H. McKinnon. The latter was the secretary, but had to leave for Porcher Island and himself appointed Ed. Clarke to act as secretary. Then the books of the association disappeared, and it was suggested that they got into the hands of Fred Ritchie and were taken below with him. This betrayal of the association was bitterly resented by several speakers and a resolution was unanimously carried that the president and secretary be empowered to take legal steps against the McBride returning officer, Ed. Clarke, and against the secretary, H. H. McKinnon, for the recovery of the books. As to Dr. Clayton, one of the charges was that as chairman of the Light and Water committee of the city he had cut off the light from the Conservative Club because the secretary, Ed. Clarke, had neglected to pay the light bill, it then being known that Clarke had funds in hand to meet this indebtedness. The proceedings lasted to a late hour and were harmonious all the way through. There was some talk of a Prince Rupert candidate, but none will be announced until after the convention.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir: On looking over the columns of your valuable paper of the 23rd February, 1912, I saw a letter headed "Warning to Canadians," and signed James Woram. I would like to state that neither the letter nor the sentiments expressed therein emanated from me. As the writer bears the same surname as myself, and as I am an employer of labor, it might be inferred that the ridiculous letter referred to was written by myself. My experience as a contractor for a great number of years in Canada has been just the reverse of my namesake's, as I have always found Canadian workmen smart, business like and civil, and have never had violence offered to me by workmen on any work that I have carried through. I consider the remarks passed on Canadians generally by James Woram very uncalled for and liable to create ill feeling among Canadian workmen. Trusting you will insert this letter in your valuable paper and that this may meet the eye of "James Woram." Your very truly, BENJAMIN WORAM, Davis & Woram, Contractors, Haysport, B. C.

PLANING MILLS ENLARGE PLANT

New Electrically Operated Machinery to Be Added to Equipment of Prince Rupert Planing Mills, Ltd.

Within the next month the Prince Rupert Planing Mills on Fifth street and Fraser is to be enlarged with new electric driven machinery into a fully equipped sash and door factory with double its present staff.

"The mill will be operated by city electric power and will be in position to handle very greatly increased business in house building materials," said Mr. Gordon Bain, managing director, to The Daily News today. "The firm's business has been running actively throughout the winter, and with the opening of spring we anticipate a growing demand for house finishing material, making this expansion necessary."

"The firm will specialize in this class of business—sash and door supplies, plate glass and all interior finishing materials as well as the other classes of material supplied hitherto."

"We shall continue our cabinet work department in charge of Mr. A. F. Knight, whose reputation for turning out first rate work is well known in the city. I am leaving for the south on Friday morning in connection with the new development contemplated."
