DAILY EDITION

AN IMPEDIMENT

Friday, February 17, 1939.

Now that Dr. Manion, leader of the Conservative party, has discovered that the Canadian Senate has nothing to do, we hope he will store up that knowledge until some day he becomes Prime Minister of Canada when he might take steps to rid the country of this impediment. It is reported that for five or six weeks the senators have been hanging around the capital hoping for something to do and not finding it.

When the Canadian Chamber of Commerce recently went on a campaign to rid the country of useless expenditures, they never seemed to think of the Canadian Senate. BOWLING

UNSEEMLY WRANGLING

The scenes in Parliament at Ottawa seem to be reminiscent of previous pre-election campaigns when the opposition tried to impress the country with its effectiveness Last Quartr of Ladies' League To and also tried to prove that the government was not handling the affairs of the country in a proper manner.

We can hardly see how action of that kind can possibly make for better government. Already Parliament ter of the Ladies' Bowling League has been in session for six weeks but, because of the de- is announced as follows: sire for publicity for election purposes, no legislation has been passed so far.
