Local Wedding Was Interesting

Miss Ida Amelia Slatta Becomes Bride of Walter Ballinger

A wedding of much interest took place in St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening when Rev. W. F. Rushbrook united in marriage Ida Amelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Knut Slatta, and Walter John Ballinger, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ballinger.

Given in marriage by Her father the bride wore a jacquette gown of white satin with matching shoulder length veil and orange flossoms.

Miss Mabel Slatta, who attended her sister as bridesmain, wore turquoise blue satin. Both the bride and her attendant carried boquets of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums. Stanley Ballinger was groomsman for his brother.

A reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ballinger, Ninth Avenue East, followed the ceremoney. A large number of friends assembled to wish the couple every happiness.
