Hiroji Yamanaka Gets Scholarship For Leading Northern Mainland In Matric Examinations—Others Successful

VICTORIA, July 24.—Margaret McCleary of New Westminster heads the senior matriculants with 89.2 percent while Carl Pearson and Beverly Witter of Vancouver tied for leadership in junior matriculation with ninety-five percent. Hiroji Yamanaka of Prince Rupert wins the scholarship of $175 for being leader of the northern mainland junior matriculants with ninety percent. Prince Rupert High School passed Alexander Baillie, William Brown, Emily Christopher, Robert Collard, Edith Cramp, Sylvia Croxford, Margaret Deane, Helen Green, Hazel Hankinson, Phyllis Hill-Tout, Mimmy Johnson, Percy Knutson, Ralph Morin, Hector MacDonald, Dorcy Nakamoto, Edith Owens, Annie Peterson, Robert Rudderham, Norma Smith, John Storrie, Kiyo Suchiro, Teiji Tsumura, Malcolm Wilding and Hiroji Yamanaka.

Hiroji Richard Yamanaka, is a native son of Prince Rupert where he was born eighteen years ago on June 27. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Yamanaka, Prince Rupert grocers. At school he has always been a good student and in the high school took all the subjects but hopes to take an electrical engineering course at the University of British Columbia. He is a member of the chemistry club at the High School.

Hiroji's father came to Prince Rupert before the townsite was laid out in 1907. He started soon afterwards in the grocery business and married here. Hiroji has an older brother in Japan studying after matriculation in Prince Rupert. There are four sisters, one (Nori, training for a nurse in St. Paul's Hospital at Vancouver. Two are attending High School and the other is at home helping in the shop.

Orange Ladies Entertained Grand Mistress

The ladies of the L. O. B. A. held a banquet in the Boston Hall Saturday evening with about thirty members present, in honor of Mrs. L. Giddens, R. W. G. Mistress from Vancouver. Toasts were proposed and drunk. After the banquet a presentation was made to Sister Howe, which was very much appreciated. The evening was spent in playing bridge followed by dancing and community singing, with songs by Mrs. R. Geddes, Mrs. M. Smith and Mrs. Mela.

Winners at bridge were, first, Mrs. A. Murray; second, Mrs. E. Murray. All, after having spent a most enjoyable time, gathered around the honored guest and brought the evening to a close with "Auld Lang Syne" and "She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mrs. Giddens, who hasn't been in Prince Rupert before, found her visit here of much interest. She will leave this evening for the interior where she will visit with other lodges before returning south.

Those in charge of the banquet were Mrs. G. Howe, Mrs. F. Ellison, Mrs. V. Menzies, Mrs. A. Murray and Miss D. Smith.

"Build B. C. Payrolls" Nothing Better In Coffee PACIFIC MILK Irradiated and Vacuum Packed

"We like nothing better in our coffee than Pacific Milk," writes Mrs. L. N. S. "It is so rich and creamy. On stewed and raw fruit, especially berries and bananas, we think it delicious, and whipped, on fruit salads, jellies and cakes, it is as good as cream, and much less expensive."
