"Hoosier School Boy," With Mickey Rooney and "The Saint Strikes Back" ar Here Tonight

"The Hoosier School Boy," starring Mickey Rooney, popular juvenile star, and "The Saint Strikes Back," a mystery thriller, comprise a double bill program being offered for tonight only at the Capitol Theatre.

In "The Hoosier School Boy" Mickey Rooney enacts the title role of an impoverished schoolboy who, like his father, is considered the nuisance of the town. How, with the help of a new school teacher. he wins the respect of the town forms the basis of the story. Ann Nagel plays the part of the school teacher. Edward Pawley is seen as the shell-shocked war veteran father while Frank Shields has the Miss E. Hemmons sailed this romantic lead opposite Miss Nagel, morning on the Cardena for Van.

Great Britain's latest minesweeper, the H.M.S. Leda is shown as it was launched at Devonport, Eng. As the ship slid gracefully down the slipway to the sea, a model swan on a long festoon was cast over the bows, following the naming of the ship in association with Greek mythology and the swans which were pets of the Goddess Leda.
