Registration Of Women For Work In War Goes On

Activity continues in the registration here of Canadian women as to the assistance they may be able to give in any way in war emergency. Registrations have been twenty-five during the two afternoons so far this week. The registration booth will continue open each afternoon this week.

The provincial head of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, in Vancouver has cleared up a misunderstanding there as to the registration of members of the organization under the national plan. Approval of such registration by I. O. D. E. members is given and they are urged to do so. There is no duplication with activities of I. O. D. E., Red Cross or any other organization interesting itself in war work.

TERRACE

Jack Balkin, a Vancouver business man, kindly treated the Terrace people to a free show in the local theatre last Friday evening. The show consisted in moving pictures in color of the Royal visit to Vancouver. The house was full and the show was much enjoyed and appreciated.

Mrs. Stanley Mills, having been appointed secretary of Terrace subdivision of the Skeena district for the registration of names in the National Registration of Canadian women, was at home October 23 and 24 for the purpose of receiving names of those wishing to register.

A. H. Robson, after having been on the Prince Robert during the past summer, has now taken over duty as purser of the steamer Prince Rupert for the winter. Purser N. A. McLean will go to the Prince John.

King Edward Football Is Now Started

The opening game in the King Edward School Football League yesterday resulted in a rather lucky win for the Maple Leafs over the Wanderers by one goal to nil. Davies went close for the Wanderers but the Maple Leafs scored first when Pilfold's high shot beat Jerstad. Holkestad nearly scored for the Wanderers.

In the second half the Wanderers had the best of the play but were not able to score. Prince saved well from Davies. Holkestad got the ball through but the score was disallowed for another player being offside.

Teams:
 Wanderers—Jerstad; A. Dixon, O. Eyoifson; James Hebb, G. Prince, M. Teng; S. Hemmons, F. Leland, J. Davies (captain), R. Holkestad, Bud Pierce, Ole Skog, Itsue Matsumoto, L. Intermela, Maple Leafs—J. Prince; L. Ness, R. Blake; W. Rothwell, R. Bartlett, F. Grimble; P. Wilson, N. Sheppard, A. Arnsten (captain), T. Pilford, A. Bagshaw.
 J. S. Wilson refereed.

SMITHERS

Constable Wilfrid Abel who has been stationed at Butedale for the past few months arrived at his home in Smithers yesterday and expects to remain home for the winter, the detachment at Butedale having been closed down. Constable Jack Downey, who has been stationed at Namu during the fishing and canning season, also returned to his home here a few days ago for the same reason and will probably be at home until the posts open up again in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, who were married in Smithers a short time ago, have returned from their honeymoon and have taken up residence in their home at the corner of Broadway Avenue and Queen Street.
