From The Waterfront

The hatch of some 100,000 Kamloops trout eggs, which were delivered here a few weeks ago, has been completed at the government wharf hatchery and a healthy lot of tiny fish are now swimming around in the troughs. When they have reached a sufficient stage of maturity they will be released in Prudhomme Lake under the management of the Prince Rupert Rod and Gun Club.

Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. A. W. Nickerson, was in port from 8:30 Saturday night to 1:30 Sunday morning discharging fish from Ketchikan for transshipment East over the Canadian National Railways. The vessel proceeded from here to Seattle.

With a total of 172 passengers, the large majority being round trip tourists, on board, C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 8:45 this morning from Vancouver and sailed at 11 a.m. for Skagway and other Alaska points. Seven persons disembarked from the Princess Charlotte here while five went aboard at this port for the north.

Southbound from Skagway to Vancouver after a regular Alaska tourist voyage, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. "GRAND MILK"

"I have used Pacific Milk ever since I was married and can truthfully say it is a grand milk. I am proud to have it on my shelf. At times I have tried other brands, but each time turn back to Pacific. It has a lovely, creamy flavor."

"GONE WITH THE WIND" HERE

Great Moving Picture Starts at Capitol Today and Will Continue For Four Days

The great picture is here. "Gone With the Wind," long anticipated by moviegoers everywhere, is having its first matinee showing this afternoon. Afternoon and evening, it shows twice daily for the four day—through to Thursday. It is a picture which all movie-goers here will, of course, be seeing. That is why it has been given the extra day's run in Prince Rupert.

"Gone With the Wind" comes heralded as the most faithful filmization of a novel ever attempted. Every word, character and event in Margaret Mitchell's dramatic story is said to live on the screen. Technicolor photography makes it that much more impressive.

Clark Gable, as Rhett Butler, is said to do the greatest job of acting so far in his career. Vivien Leigh, the overnight star, is reported to be perfect as Scarlett O'Hara. Leslie Howard and Olivia de Havilland are the principal supporting stars. Everyone has been waiting to see "Gone With the Wind." Its showing here is an event in local moving picture history.
